PLEASE SIGN UP FOR WESHARE!!

As we approach the summer months may I ask you to please consider signing up for the WeShare program of electronic giving. During the summer our weekly collections fall off while our fixed expenses remain the same.

WeShare helps us to maintain our weekly income even when people are away. There is a link to WeShare on our parish website. Please consider joining up today. Thank you!

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit. He said to them, “the harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves.”

Imagine being one of those sent. Who is your companion, as you go to bring the message of Jesus to someone else. Is your partner the talkative type, allowing you to remain present, but quiet? To whom will you go, either knocking on a door, stopping by a hospital bed, saying hello to someone in the laundromat? Isn't it interesting to wrestle with the answers?

Well, you are one of the lucky ones, not among the seventy-two, but among all the baptized to work in bringing in the harvest. If someone doesn't do his or her part, the harvest fails, dies, or simply rots. It is out there and the Lord needs people to follow His call as priests and deacons, as religious and committed lay workers, as missionary disciples. The good thing is, we do not do it alone but the Lord accompanies you.

There is work to be done and I heard that He is asking you to do it. Talk to someone about it today and fulfill your potential.

Words of Inspiration:

A Mother's Comfort:

We often refer to God as our Father, but today's beautiful first reading from Isaiah presents us with an image of God as our Mother. Isaiah's community has recently returned from exile and they're surrounded by destruction and chaos. The Temple is gone, the land is barren and the people are in need of hope. In the midst of their suffering, Isaiah invites them to rejoice with Jerusalem, which is portrayed as a nourishing, loving mother. And then God promises, "As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you." Sometimes our lives can get pretty discouraging too, and we can look to this promise for hope. God loves us as a mother, waiting to enfold us in her comforting arms.

-Angeline Hubert

Thank You!

We are deeply grateful for your prayers, good wishes, encouragement, and financial donations in support of our participation in the Capuchin Appalachian Mission. It means a great deal to us to have this beautiful affirmation from our parish faith community as we set off for Harlan, Kentucky this weekend. Please know that we carry you with us in our hearts and that we will be praying for you all each day. We look forward to sharing our experiences with the parish at some point in the future.

God bless you!

Matthew Collins and Maria Lonczak,

SUMMER 2019
FOOD & SCHOOL
SUPPLIES DRIVES
July 6th & 7th
August 3rd & 4th

Summer is a time of greater food insecurities for children than when they are in school because many schools provide free breakfasts and lunches for students. St. Patrick's parishioners, please let's not leave any children unfed. Let's make sure that their families have the food they need so that children can have fun during the summer instead of worrying about where their next meal will come from!

We will be collecting food for the Center's Food Pantry. Nonperishable food items can be dropped off in the church vestibule and will be delivered to the Community Center of Northern Westchester.

The Community Center has also kicked off its school supplies drive! In addition to the supplemental food drive, let's contribute school supplies as well. You will find a school supplies shopping list in the food bags in the vestibule of the Church.

Please drop off your contributions in the Church vestibule on the first weekends of July and August and we will see to it that everything gets to the Community Center.

Thank you for your generosity!
