BULLETIN NEWS –
OCTOBER 14-15, 2017

SAN VINCENZO MARTIRE di CRA-
CO: Sunday, October 22, 2017, the Craco Society will hold it's annual Mass in honor of San Vincenzo Martire di Craco at Most Precious Blood Church. The Mass will be at 11:00AM. The Craco Society is one of the newer societies here at MPB

Church, and as we've said before, we are honored they chose our church to be San Vincenzo's new 'home'. The San Vincenzo statue is a work of art and rests in a magnificent hand-made wooden case placed beneath our Sacred Heart statue on the altar bearing the same name. Everyone is welcome to attend the Mass, so please join the society as they honor their patron saint.

SANT'BEATO ANGELO d'ACRI: This Sunday, October 15, 2017, Beato Angelo (Blessed Angelo) is being canonized as a saint in Rome, ITALY. We are thrilled for the very faithful Beato Angelo Society members who get to see their beloved Angelo canonized in their lifetimes. They have continued the long tradition of honoring their beloved patron, a member of the Capuchin Order, with an annual Mass. In doing so, the society not only pays tribute to Beato Angelo but also honors those who founded the society over 100+ years ago along with all the members who came before them who brought this religious celebration to America. Whether living or deceased, we trust ALL members are joyful at seeing their beloved patron finally become a saint. What a wonderful experience this is for all concerned!

MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD SENIOR CITIZENS' CLUB: As of this writing, the next MPB senior club luncheon will be on Wednesday, November 1st.

As you know, November 1st is also All Saints Day. It's somewhat scary how fast this year is flying by -- we're talking about November already!
