UPCOMING SAINT FEAST DAY CELEBRATIONS at Most Precious Blood Church are as follows:

Sunday, October 28, 2018, at 10:30AM is the annual Mass for San Vincenzo Martire di Craco by the Craco Society. San Vincenzo is the protector of Craco, a town in southern Italy in the Basilicata Region. He was a Christian soldier in the Theban Legion, part of the Roman army. Before going into battle, the Roman General ordered the troops to sacrifice themselves before the Roman Gods. Soldiers of the Theban Legion, being Christians, refused to honor false gods and ultimately, all were executed. San Vincenzo's martyred bones were brought to Craco in 1792. His feast has been celebrated there since then, and in New York City since 1901. The first celebration here was held outside Most Precious Blood Church while it was still under construction. The statue in the church was made on Spring Street in Little Italy in 1901. It was originally housed in St. Joachim's Church, then moved to St. Joseph's Church before coming to MPB in 2015. Inside the display case is a bone relic of San Vincenzo.

Also on Sunday, October 28 at 12:30PM is the annual Mass for Sant'Angelo (Beato Angelo) d'Acri. The Beato Angelo Society has been celebrating this Mass at MPB for decades, but this is only the second year in honor of Angelo as a saint. He was Canonized last year on October 15, 2017, mere weeks before the annual Mass in his honor; therefore, the first Mass celebrating his sainthood took place on the last Sunday in October 2017. Information on the life of Sant'Angelo will be published in next week's Bulletin.

HONORING VETERANS OF WORLD WAR 1: November 11th is Veteran's Day, a day set aside to honor all United States veterans who served this country and active troops who are still serving around the world. This November also marks the 100th anniversary of the end of World War 1. We are making plans to have a special service which will be incorporated into our Saturday 5:30PM Mass on November 17th which might include light refreshments after Mass in the nave of the church. If there is anyone from Little Italy or surrounding neighborhoods who had a relative serve during World War 1, please contact either Bill Russo at 347-933-3337 or Emily DePalo at 212-226-6427 to have your relative's name added to a list we intend to read during the after-Mass event.
