BULLETIN NEWS – DECEMBER 22-23, 2018

4TH SUNDAY OF AD-

VENT: This week marks the 4th and last Sunday of Advent in preparation of the birth of Jesus Christ. The 4th Sunday of Advent symbolizes peace with the 'Angel's Candle'.

The 'Angel's Candle' reminds us of the message of the angels: "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men". We hope your journey during the Advent season has left you with a renewed spirit and deeper appreciation of the most important things in life: our religion and all its miracles, love of family and love for our neighbor. We are all in this together, and we are expected to act as such and take care of each other in whatever way we can, if and when we are called upon to help a fellow human being. Christmas is a time for miracles; perhaps one of us will be called upon to help make one happen for someone in need.

CHRISTMAS EVE VIGIL MASS: PLEASE NOTE -- A Christmas Eve Vigil Mass will be held at Most Precious Blood Church on Monday, December 24th, at 5:30PM. Many people may not be aware that we will be celebrating a Vigil Mass here this year. Please tell your family members and friends. We are grateful whenever we are given the opportunity to come together here in our home parish and celebrate Mass marking such a momentous day – this is a gift, make the most of it!

MERRY CHRISTMAS! Masses for Christmas Day will be celebrated at the Basilica of Saint Patrick's Old Cathedral. They will have Midnight Mass on Monday, December 24th beginning at 11:30PM (Christmas Carols at 10:30PM). Christmas Day Masses are as follows: ENGLISH: 9:00AM AND 12:45PM; CHINESE: 10:15AM and SPANISH:
