TODAY, SUNDAY, JUNE 16TH is

Father's Day. We especially celebrate those dads who made sacrifices, worked hard, loved and cared for us, essentially doing everything they could to make us feel loved, safe and special. Those of us who have/had this type of father are fortunate and blessed; not everyone gets this gift. However, today we celebrate all fathers if, for no other reason, than for giving life to their children. So, Happy Father's Day to all fathers, living and deceased, good and not-so-good. Also, let's not forget our spiritual fathers – all the priests who have celebrated Mass for us, have listened to us, and have aided in forgiving our sins. May you all enjoy your special day, your families and God's blessings, no matter where you are.
