In light of recent scandals in religious communities, how should we think about church-state relations? To what extent should religious institutions submit to the state's jurisdiction over them, and what limits should they claim on that jurisdiction? How could the state's prosecution of injustice committed by religious leaders work for good and ill in the years to come? Join us for a panel discussion between Frank Beckwith (Baylor University), Mark Movsesian (St. John's University), and Phillip Bethancourt (Southern Baptist Convention).

Annual Seminary Collection

Mr. Stephen Robbins, a seminarian studying at St. Joseph's Seminary, Dunwoodie, will be speaking at all the Masses next weekend, September 28-29. Stephen is from the Diocese of Camden, NJ, and currently in his second year of theology studies. He will be speaking in behalf of the Annual Seminary Appeal, which will be the second collection taken up at all the Masses that same weekend. We thank you for welcoming Stephen to the basilica, and for your generous support of our seminary that prepares future priests for service to the Archdiocese of New York and numerous other dioceses and religious orders.

BULLETIN NEWS – SEPTEMBER 21-22, 2019

THE 2019 ANNUAL FEAST OF SAN GENNARO ENDS
TODAY. As we have done for the past 9+ years on the last day of the feast, a blood drive is taking place
today, Sunday, September 22nd at St. Patrick's Youth Center, 268 Mulberry

Street between Prince and Houston Streets. The hours are from 11:00AM – 5:00PM. There is still plenty of time to walk through the feast and stop in to the Youth Center and make a blood donation before leaving Little Italy – WALK-INS ARE ALWAYS WEL-COME so please do not be concerned if you haven't made an appointment; you will be welcomed with open arms. Donating a pint of blood saves the lives of three people. IMAGINE SAVING THE LIVES OF THREE PEOPLE! For your kindness, you will be treated to light refreshments and cannoli. Once again, the can-noli will be donated by John DeLutro, the "Cannoli King" from Caffe Palermo at 148 Mulberry Street.

Please support the blood drive to help make it a success once again; this can only bring additional positive attention to both the San Gennaro feast and our Little Italy neighborhood, and YOU WILL BE SAVING LIVES IN THE PROCESS!

We wish to extend our sincere gratitude to our new pastor, Fr. Brian Graebe, and the Figli di San Gennaro for working together and formulating a plan to keep Most Precious Blood Church open each evening until 9:00PM during the San Gennaro feast; we weren't sure we would be able to do that this year.
Thank you, Fr. Graebe and all the San Gennaro Board Members!
