He is Risen. Alleluia!

Dear Parishioners,

I want to wish all of you a blessed Easter. This is a strange Easter, to be sure, when it feels in many ways as though we're still journeying through Lent. There is much cause for concern--our health and safety, our jobs and finances, our family and friends. We might feel like the apostles after the crucifixion: alone and scared, and maybe a little down. The joy of Easter can seem like something of a false note. But we need that joy right now, because it reminds us that death and sorrow didn't get the last word. We know what happened on the third day. And needs to fill us with faith and hope, to persevere through this current darkness, until we too rise up from this crisis. Our risen Lord shows us the way, and promises us that a brighter day lies ahead. And so even in the midst of much sorrow and many tears, we sing Alleluia because we know that Jesus is alive, that he has won, and that he is still with us.

You and your loved ones are in my prayers, and I look forward to the day, please God soon, when we can worship our risen Lord together once again.

Prayer to the Virgin Mary for Protection

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick.

At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith.

You, Our Lady of New York, know what we need. We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test – and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed

A Message from Cardinal Dolan

As we embark on this new decade, together in faith, I invite us to remember the mission to which we are all called. It is the task of every generation to take the faith that we've received and share it with others. This is what the Lord calls us to do: to teach, to serve, and to sanctify the world, by proclaiming the truth and making disciples of all nations. This work is most effectively accomplished through the ministry of the Church – in our parishes, our schools, our religious orders, our seminaries, and the many charitable services that are designed to respond to the evolving needs of our communities. This is the work that the Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal makes possible through your generous donations.

The works that are represented in the Cardinal's Appeal make tangible the mission of the Church in our communities at a time when – some might say – the world is most in need of such a witness.

Please visit cardinalsappeal.org to make your gift. I thank you for your continued support of the Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal.

Catholic Bytes Podcast offers short, dynamic talks about the faith. The goal of Catholic Bytes is to offer dynamic catechesis for people on the move. Episodes offer listeners a variety of themes ranging from faith fundamentals, Scripture, dogma, morals, liturgy, spirituality, saints, and Church history. Notes from Most Precious Blood

Due to the current situation, The Shrine Church of the Most Precious Blood is closed until further notice.

THE HISTORY OF LITTLE ITALY: We are hopeful that conditions greatly improve and that research for the book chronicling the history of our church and what role immigration played in the creation of Most Precious Blood Church, its statues, societies, etc. and in the creation of Little Italy itself will continue. The book will also showcase what life was like back when Little Italy was a family-oriented neighborhood celebrating Italian culture as opposed to the more commercial area it has become today. Please contact either Janice Carapellucci at janice@feetonthegroundnyc.com or call her at 718-852-7205 to have your story included in the book. You may also contact MPB's Bill Russo at viabravo@msn.com or call him at 347-933-3337. Any photos you submit will be returned, unharmed.
