First ReadingEZ 34:11-12, 15-17

Thus says the Lord GOD:
 I myself will look after and tend my sheep.
 As a shepherd tends his flock
 when he finds himself among his scattered sheep,
 so will I tend my sheep.
 I will rescue them from every place where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark.
 I myself will pasture my sheep;
 I myself will give them rest, says the Lord GOD.
 The lost I will seek out,
 the strayed I will bring back,
 the injured I will bind up,
 the sick I will heal,
 but the sleek and the strong I will destroy,
 shepherding them rightly.
 As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD,
 I will judge between one sheep and another,
 between rams and goats.

Second Reading1 COR 15:20-26, 28

Brothers and sisters:
 Christ has been raised from the dead,
 the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.
 For since death came through man,
 the resurrection of the dead came also through man.
 For just as in Adam all die,
 so too in Christ shall all be brought to life,
 but each one in proper order:
 Christ the firstfruits;
 then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ;
 then comes the end,
 when he hands over the kingdom to his God and Father,
 when he has destroyed every sovereignty
 and every authority and power.
 For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.
 The last enemy to be destroyed is death.
 When everything is subjected to him,
 then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him,
 so that God may be all in all.

GospelMT 25:31-46

Jesus said to his disciples:
 "When the Son of Man comes in his glory,
 and all the angels with him,
 he will sit upon his glorious throne,
 and all the nations will be assembled before him.
 And he will separate them one from another,
 as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.
 He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.
 Then the king will say to those on his right,
 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father.
 Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.
 For I was hungry and you gave me food,
 I was thirsty and you gave me drink,
 a stranger and you welcomed me,
 naked and you clothed me,
 ill and you cared for me,
 in prison and you visited me.'
 Then the righteous will answer him and say,
 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you,
 or thirsty and give you drink?
 When did we see you a stranger and welcome you,
 or naked and clothe you?
 When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?'
 And the king will say to them in reply,
 'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did
 for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me.'
 Then he will say to those on his left,
 'Depart from me, you accursed,
 into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels.
 For I was hungry and you gave me no food,
 I was thirsty and you gave me no drink,
 a stranger and you gave me no welcome,
 naked and you gave me no clothing,
 ill and in prison, and you did not care for me.'
 Then they will answer and say,
 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty
 or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison,
 and not minister to your needs?'
 He will answer them, 'Amen, I say to you,
 what you did not do for one of these least ones,
 you did not do for me.'
 And these will go off to eternal punishment,
 but the righteous to eternal life."

A Message from Cardinal Dolan

As we embark on this new decade, together in faith, I invite us to remember the mission to which we are all called. It is the task of every generation to take the faith that we've received and share it with others. This is what the Lord calls us to do: to teach, to serve, and to sanctify the world, by proclaiming the truth and making disciples of all nations. This work is most effectively accomplished through the ministry of the Church – in our parishes, our schools, our religious orders, our seminaries, and the many charitable services that are designed to respond to the evolving needs of our communities. This is the work that the Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal makes possible through your generous donations.

The works that are represented in the Cardinal's Appeal make tangible the mission of the Church in our communities at a time when – some might say – the world is most in need of such a witness.

Please visit cardinalsappeal.org to make your gift.

I thank you for your continued support of the Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal.

Warriors Coat Drive

Dearest Faithful Parishioners
of The Basilica of Saint Patrick's Old Cathedral,

We are so grateful that your generous donations to the annual Warriors Coat Drive for All Souls

have helped us exceed our goal this year. Thanks to your kindness, we were able to provide 30 new winter kits to our neighbors experiencing homelessness. Our SpotFund link is still active (<http://spot.fund/WarriorsCoatDrive>) if you want to make a last minute donation.

Next week, we will be launching our Advent Gift and Diaper Drive for the homeless mothers who have chosen life for their babies and are in residence at the Siena House Shelter in the Bronx.

Stay tuned to the bulletin for information on how you can help!
