Feast of Pentecost

The world's hatred, witness by the Paraclete, Jesus' stress on the necessity of love among his followers is related to his perception of how the world hates him and those whom he has chosen out of the world. If at the beginning of the Gospel we were told that God loved the world, "the world" is now coterminous with those who have rejected the Son whom God sent to save it. The fact that Jesus has come and spoken makes this rejection sinful. The Paraclete will come and continue the witness in behalf of Jesus, and those who have been with Jesus from the beginning must bear witness. They should recognize, however, that they will be expelled from the synagogue and even put to death for such witness. This section of the Johannine Last Discourse resembles part of the final speech of Jesus before the Supper in Mark, and also in Matthew.

Fiesta de Pentecostés

El odio del mundo, testigo de los Paracleto, el estrés de Jesús en la necesidad de amor entre sus seguidores está relacionado con su percepción de cómo el mundo lo odia y los que ha elegido fuera del mundo. Si a principios del Evangelio nos dijeran que Dios amó el mundo, "el mundo" está ahora coextensiva con aquellos que han rechazado al hijo que Dios envió para salvarlo. El hecho de que Jesús haya venido y hablado hace que este rechazo sea pecaminoso. El Paracleto vendrá y continuará el testigo en nombre de Jesús, y los que han estado con Jesús desde el principio deben testimoniar. Deben reconocer, sin embargo, que serán expulsados de la sinagoga e incluso puestos a la muerte por tal testigo. Esta sección del último discurso de joánicos se asemeja a parte del discurso final de Jesús antes de la cena en marcos, y también en Mateo

Prayer for Pentecost Sunday

Breathe in me O Holy Spirit that my thoughts may all be holy;
Act in me O Holy Spirit that my works, too, may be holy;
Draw my heart O Holy Spirit that I love but what is holy;
Strengthen me O Holy Spirit to defend that is holy; Guard me then O Holy Spirit that I always may be holy .
