The finale of Matthews Gospel comes when Jesus appears to the eleven on a Mountain in Galilee. As we shall see with resurrection appearances in Luke and John, there are typical details: doubt, reverence for Jesus and a commission. The mountain is the Matthean symbolic place for Jesus' revelation, and the exalted Jesus who speaks "has given all power on Heaven and Earth". This echoes Prophet Daniel who speaks on this as the Son of Man coming to his Church in a proleptic Parousia. The sending to all nations here at the end revises the restricted sending to the lost sheep of the House of Israel and not to the Gentiles in the middle of the Gospel. The baptismal formula in the name of the three Divine Persons was presumably in use in the Matthean Church at this period, having replaced an earlier custom of baptizing in the name of Jesus. The instruction to teach all the nations "all that I have commanded you" probably refers to the contents of Matthew's five discourses or even all that he has narrated. The final verse "I am with you all days until the end of the age" is an inclusion with God's revelation about Jesus through the prophet Isaiah at the beginning of the Gospel: His name shall be called Emmanuel, which means "God with us".

Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad

El final del Evangelio de Mateo viene cuando Jesús aparece a los once en una montaña en Galilea. Como veremos con las apariciones de resurrección en Lucas y Juan, hay detalles típicos: duda, reverencia por Jesús y una Comisión. La montaña es el lugar simbólico Matthean para la revelación de Jesús, y el Jesús exaltado que habla "ha dado todo el poder sobre el cielo y la tierra". Esto hace eco al Profeta Daniel que habla sobre esto como el hijo del hombre que viene a su iglesia en una proleptico. El envío a todas las Naciones aquí al final revisa el envío restringido a las ovejas perdidas de la casa de Israel y no a los gentiles en medio del Evangelio. La fórmula bautismal en el nombre de las tres personas divinas era presumiblemente en uso en la iglesia Matthean en este período, después de haber sustituido y costumbre anterior de bautizar en el nombre de Jesús. La instrucción de enseñar a todas las Naciones "todo lo que te he mandado" probablemente se refiere al contenido de los cinco discursos de Mateo o incluso a todo lo que él ha narrado. El versículo final "estoy con ustedes todos los días hasta el fin de la era" es una inclusión con la revelación de Dios acerca de Jesús a través del profeta Isaías al comienzo del Evangelio: su nombre se llamará Emmanuel, que significa "Dios con nosotros".

God of power and mercy, you destroy war and put down earthly pride. Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters. Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this though Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Oracion para el Dia de Conmemoración

Dios del poder y la misericordia, destruyes la guerra y dejas el orgullo terrenal. Desterrar la violencia de nuestro medio y limpia nuestras lágrimas que todos podemos merecer ser llamados sus hijos e hijas. Mantén en tu misericordia a esos hombres y mujeres que han muerto en la causa de la libertad y los traen a salvo a tu Reino de justicia y paz. Pedimos esto aunque Jesucristo nuestro Señor. Amén
