Thirty -Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Last Sunday we heard Jesus' observation about the contributions being made to the temple treasury and the example of sacrificial giving that he saw in the poor widow's offering. If we had been reading Mark's Gospel continuously, we would have heard Jesus predict the destruction of the Temple, his teaching about the costs of discipleship, and the woes that will accompany the end times. Finally, we would have heard Jesus instruct his disciples about the need for watchfulness so that they will not be caught unprepared for this final day of judgment.

In today's Gospel, Jesus continues this teaching by offering his disciples signs to look for that will indicate that the coming of the Son of Man is near. His words and images draw upon Old Testament imagery, especially images found in the Book of Daniel. Next, Jesus offers the lesson of the fig tree, a parable that teaches that if one knows how to read the signs, one can be prepared for the end times. Jesus also teaches, however, that no one knows when the end time will come, except the Father. In the verses that follow this reading in Mark's Gospel, Jesus continues to warn his disciples to be on watch for this end time.

Jesus' words are not spoken to frighten his disciples, nor should they frighten us. Rather, they are offered to prepare us for the changes we will experience during our lifetimes and at the end times. Our consolation and hope is found in the lasting nature of Jesus' words and God's never-ending love for us.

Trigésimo Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El domingo pasado escuchamos la observación de Jesús sobre las contribuciones que se hacen a la tesorería del templo y el ejemplo de ofrenda sacrificial que vio en la ofrenda de la viuda pobre. Si hubiéramos estado leyendo el Evangelio de Marcos continuamente, habríamos escuchado a Jesús predecir la destrucción del Templo, su enseñanza sobre los costos del discipulado y los males que acompañarán al fin de los tiempos. Finalmente, habríamos escuchado a Jesús instruir a sus discípulos sobre la necesidad de estar alerta para que no queden desprevenidos para este día final de juicio.

En el evangelio de hoy, Jesús continúa esta enseñanza al ofrecer a sus discípulos señales para que los busquen y que indiquen que la venida del Hijo del Hombre está cerca. Sus palabras e imágenes se basan en imágenes del Antiguo Testamento, especialmente imágenes que se encuentran en el Libro de Daniel. A continuación, Jesús ofrece la lección de la higuera, una parábola que enseña que si uno sabe leer las señales, puede estar preparado para el fin de los tiempos. Jesús también enseña, sin embargo, que nadie sabe cuándo llegará el tiempo del fin, excepto el Padre. En los versículos que siguen a esta lectura en el Evangelio de Marcos, Jesús continúa advirtiendo a sus discípulos que estén de guardia para este tiempo del fin.

Las palabras de Jesús no están dichas para asustar a sus discípulos, ni deben asustarnos a nosotros. Más bien, se ofrecen para prepararnos para los cambios que experimentaremos durante nuestra vida y al final de los tiempos. Nuestro consuelo y esperanza se encuentran en la naturaleza duradera de las palabras de Jesús y el amor interminable de Dios por nosotros.

2nd Reading Hebrews 10:11-14,18

Today's Gospel Mark 13:24-32

Jesus teaches about the signs of the coming of the Son of Man.

A Prayer for the Souls in Purgatory

O most gentle Heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the souls of Your departed servants. Be not severe in Your judgments, but let some drops of Your Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames. And do You, O Merciful Saviour, send Your holy angels to conduct them to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen
