TODAY (Sunday, November 1st) IS SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

It is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. While we do have an official listing of those who have been canonized (formally declared saints), there are countless others whose names are known only to God. We celebrate them on this special day. It gives us hope that, where the saints are now, we also might be after our deaths, if we persevere in the virtues of faith, hope and divine charity on this earth. In observance of this important day, both our parish and diocesan offices will be closed on Monday, November 2.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

During the month of November, we are called in a special way to remember our brothers and sisters who have died in the hope of the resurrection. Once again, we have available our Book of Remembrance near the ambo. Please enter the names of your beloved dead and they will be remembered in prayer at Mass during the month. If you would like to request a Mass for a loved one, the suggested Mass stipend is $10. Envelopes are available in the church entry and can be put in the collection basket.
