AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

PRAYERS

The family of Pat Ochsner has asked that you please remember her in your prayers for healing and comfort.

AREA EVENTS/NEWS

MEMORARE

(Bishop Kagan has asked us to pray the Memorare during this time, asking for our Blessed Mother to intercede for us.)
“REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.”

PENTECOST SUNDAY

This Sunday, we celebrate the feast of Pentecost. Like the apostles, we have been commissioned with a special task from God. He lovingly created each one of us, with special gifts to allow Him to accomplish such great things through us. In the beautiful sacrament of Confirmation, we receive seven gifts from the Holy Spirit that strengthen the gifts that we already received in our Baptism. Let us remember to utilize these gifts:

- Fortitude (or courage)—a steady will to do good in spite of difficulties
- Wisdom—help us respond to God as we contemplate divine things
- Understanding—help us grasp revealed truths more easily
- Counsel—helps us judge quickly and correctly
- Knowledge—awareness of God’s plan for our lives
- Piety—loyalty to God and divine things
- Fear of the Lord—deep respect for God that helps us avoid sin

CORPORAL WORKS OF MERCY DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

The Corporal Works of Mercy are found in the teachings of Jesus and give us a model for how we should treat all others, as if they were Christ in disguise; they “are charitable actions by which we help our neighbors in their bodily needs” (U.S. Catholic Catechism for Adults).

FEED THE HUNGRY • Check in with your parish community to see if there are parishioners who cannot (or should not) go grocery shopping themselves. Organize a network of volunteers to grocery shop for parishioners in need, especially the more vulnerable populations in our community.

GIVE DRINK TO THE THIRSTY • Do not purchase or hoard more water than you need. While handwashing is vitally important, make an effort not to waste water—in solidarity with our brothers and sisters in Christ who do not have access to clean water and suffer from the lack of this basic necessity.

SHELTER THE HOMELESS • Consider donating toiletries and sanitary items to a local shelter since those who suffer homelessness—and the facilities that minister to them—are especially vulnerable at this time. Financially support organizations that are working to support the homeless population in your community.

VISIT THE SICK • While in-person visits are not advisable during this time, please invest time in reaching out via phone/video call or by sending a letter or card to those who may feel particularly isolated during this time. Offer to assist caregivers of chronically sick family members by grocery shopping or cooking for them so they do not have to risk exposure. Reach out to health care workers in your community who may be overworked, burdened, or in need of specific support at this time.

VISIT THE PRISONERS • Explore whether your diocese has a prison ministry and, if so, check whether they are in need of supplies or support. Given that people in prison can be especially isolated and vulnerable during this pandemic, consider how to support those who are ministering to them and bringing them the Word of God.

BURY THE DEAD • Now that funerals may be limited or restricted, reach out with cards or phone calls to those who have recently lost a loved one. If possible, visit the cemetery to pray for those you have lost—and to ask their intercession on behalf of all those facing death today.

GIVE ALMS TO THE POOR • Reach out to those who may have been especially burdened during this pandemic, especially those whose occupations make them more vulnerable to economic instability. Remember that the lack of public celebration of Masses may have resulted in parishes struggling financially; be sure to continue your support and, if possible, increase offerings for those who cannot donate due to recent financial hardship or inability to work.
