FEBRUARY 2: WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR CONSECRATED LIFE

Tuesday, February 2nd, is the annual celebration of the World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life. It is a special time to celebrate the gift of consecrated life and pray for men and women discerning a consecrated vocation. We have been greatly blessed in our diocese to have many women and men from various religious communities and institutes who have faithfully served us in parishes, schools, institutions, and other apostolates. As Bishop Checchio (Metuchen), chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' (USCCB) Committee on Clergy, Consecrated Life and Vocations stated: "The faithful witness of religious and other consecrated men and women living out their vocation is powerful. By their prayers and apostolates, those in consecrated life provide for us an example of Christ's merciful love, and especially during these uncertain and difficult times, they point us to the reality that Christ is our ultimate goal." Let us keep those in Consecrated Life in our prayers, especially on Tuesday.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

Moses told the people, "A prophet like me will the Lord, your God, raise up for you from among your own kinsmen." God still provides among His people the gifts and talents necessary to continue the work of His church. What gifts are yours to share?

- Have you ever taken a moment to figure out how much time, on the average, you spend a week volunteering in your church or in your community?
- Are you interested in investing in the future of religious education? A bequest in your Will could provide for an even better religious education program for our young people.
