ALL SAINTS DAY

Tomorrow (Monday – November 1st) is Solemnity of All Saints. We celebrate all those, named and unnamed, who we believe are living in the fullness of God’s Presence in heaven. Usually, it is a Holy Day of Obligation. However, it is one of the Holy Days that, when it falls either on a Saturday or a Monday (like this year), the obligation is lifted. We are encouraged, however, to make a special effort to observe this special day, e.g. pray a Litany of the Saints, read about the life of one of the saints, pray a family rosary, etc. And may we – one day – join All the Saints in heaven!

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

During the month of November, we are called in a special way to remember our brothers and sisters who have died in the hope of the resurrection. Once again, we will have available our Book of Remembrance near the ambo. Please enter the names of your beloved dead and they will be remembered in prayer at Mass during the month. If you would like to request a Mass for a loved one, the suggested Mass stipend is $10.

MASS FOR DECEASED CLERGY NOVEMBER 2

The public is invited to attend the annual Mass for Deceased Bishops, Priests and Deacons celebrated by Bishop Kagan on Tuesday, Nov. 2 at 11 a.m. at the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit in Bismarck. This Mass honors members of the clergy who have passed away in the previous year. This year, we remember in our prayers: Msgr. Joseph Senger (11-9-20), Deacon Ralph von Ruden (12-24-20) and Fr. Denis Fournier, OSB (1-12-21).

GOLD MASS NOVEMBER 3

University of Mary is hosting the fourth annual Gold Mass for scientists on Wednesday, Nov. 3, at 10 a.m. at Our Lady of the Annunciation Chapel on campus. Bishop Kagan will celebrate this special Mass honoring the partnership between religion and science. Everyone and especially area scientists are welcome to attend. There will be a reception for scientists following Mass.

NEW ENGLAND FALL SUPPER NOVEMBER 6
