Saint Joseph Church Media Release Form
 Permission to Publish Students' Work &
 Release to Use Work or Image for Promotional Purposes &
 Participation in Media Events

Dear Parents/Guardians:

Throughout the year, your child may participate in special religious education events at Saint Joseph Parish. The opportunity to publish the photos of your child either alone or in a group is at the parent's discretion. The publication media includes: parish newsletter, parish web-site, parish Facebook, parish Twitter account, The Beacon, our diocesan newspaper, as well as secular publications, such as The Observer-Tribune. Many newspapers also have "online" versions of stories and several are mounting video streaming or photodex presentations on their sites.

This permission slip is designed to obtain your permission to include your son/daughter in these activities. There is no compensation or penalty attached to your selection of approval. Your choice will be effective for the period of time that your child/daughter is enrolled in Saint Joseph Parish Religious Education program unless specifically changed at your written request which you may do at any time.

Please indicate & initial the media activities for which permission is granted in the appropriate column, and then sign & return this form with your religious education registration to the Parish House by September 15th.

I give permission for my child(ren)'s image and/or name to be published in the media activities I have checked and initialed below
