St. Polycarp

When I was teaching Church History, one of my favorite lessons was on the saint whom we will celebrate this Saturday, St. Polycarp.

The reason I enjoyed teaching about St. Polycarp was because his is one of the first martyrdom accounts written down, but even more so, he was an 80-year-old bishop, who fearlessly endured martyrdom for the sake of Christ.

I highly recommend searching for his martyrdom account online because, in my opinion, it is one of the most powerful things you will ever read.

St. Polycarp was a disciple of St. John the Evangelist and so, as a result, he was able to learn and to hear firsthand accounts of Jesus, who He was, what He did and the true impact that He had on people's lives. Some would say that these accounts are what inspired St. Polycarp to endure the challenges that had to be readily faced in an environment less than sympathetic to Christians.

St. Polycarp, as one commentator notes was "a holy man and bishop of Smyrna, who found there was only one answer [to respond to such an environment] -- to be true to the life of Jesus and imitate that life."

One day, as the story goes, there was a very bloody and violent martyrdom of a group of Christians who were attacked by wild animals in the arena. (The arena was the place of entertainment for the pagans, and one of the most entertaining events for the pagans was watching Christians die.) It is said that the crowd became so mad that they demanded more blood by crying, "Down with the atheists; let Polycarp be found." (Christians were considered "atheists" because they didn't believe in the gods of the pagans.)

St. Polycarp was unafraid, but, at the advice of others, moved from town to town until he was found in a little farm. It is said, when his captors came he fed them a meal and asked for one request, to be able to pray for an hour, he prayed for two, praying for all Christians, his captors and everyone he could think of and then was brought to the arena.

On the Sabbath day, he faced his demise. He was told by the proconsul to say: "Away with atheists," so he looked at the faces of the crowd (the pagans) and said as he was told, then he was told to swear by Caesar to save himself, he then said: "If you imagine that I will swear by Caesar, you do not know who I am. Let me tell you plainly, I am a Christian."

The proconsul then reminded him that he would be thrown to the wild animals unless he changed his mind. St. Polycarp refused and, not only that, after seeing in a dream a few days earlier his pillow being burned up, he knew he was to be burned at the stake, which is indeed what happened.

As he was tied up at the stake he said a beautiful prayer, and as he said "Amen" everyone saw a miracle. It is said the fire burst up in an arch around St. Polycarp, the flames surrounding him like sails, and instead of being burned he seemed to glow like bread baking, (Eucharistic imagery) or gold being melted in a furnace. When the captors saw he wasn't being burned, they stabbed him. The blood that flowed put the fire out.

That is the short version, again, I recommend you read the entire thing, it is not that long, because, at the end of the day what St. Polycarp shows is the power of prayer and the strength it gives to persevere as a Christian. His example should be an inspiration to us all and we too should desire to live with the same fearlessness by making his prayer our own, the same beautiful prayer he prayed before his death, the same prayer with which I would like to end.

"Lord God Almighty, Father of your beloved and blessed Son Jesus Christ...I bless you, for having made me worthy of this day and hour, I bless you, because I may have a part, along with the martyrs, in the chalice of your Christ, to resurrection in eternal life...May I be received today, as a rich and acceptable sacrifice, among those who are in your presence...For this and for all benefits I praise you, I bless you, I glorify you, through the eternal and heavenly High Priest, Jesus Christ, your beloved Son, through whom be to you with him and the Holy Spirit glory, now and for all the ages to come. Amen."

Under normal circumstances the option is always there for all to receive the Eucharist under both species, but given these extraordinary times when so many are coming down with severe colds or the flu, our parish will suspend the distribution of the Precious Blood at all Masses until further notice.

The same holds true for shaking hands during the sign of peace; if you have a cold, just acknowledge those around you verbally.

Attention Prime Timers

The February meeting of the Prime Timers Group will be held on Friday, February 22nd, beginning with the 12:05 p.m. Mass followed by a luncheon in the community room, a brief business meeting, games and fellowship for all. Membership is open to everyone 55 or older.

ALTAR FLOWER MEMORIAL

For those who wish to remember a loved one at a weekend Mass, may we suggest offering the flowers for the main altar or for the Blessed Mother altar, which will be there for the weekend and into the week following. The flowers will be ordered by the parish and mention of the intention will be made both in the bulletin and before the weekend Masses. The cost of flowers for the main altar is $50.00 and for the side altar, $35.00. You may also donate the Sanctuary Lamp for a specific weekend. The cost is $10.00

If you would like to donate the flowers or the Sanctuary Lamp, please call the rectory 973-694-5700.

Knights of Columbus "Your Choice" Breakfast after all Masses

Parish Food Pantry

*Our parish collects food for the needy every weekend.
Please bring nonperishable food and offer it as your gift to those in need.*

Notification of Hospitalization Illness or Impending Surgery

Hospitals are required to observe confidentiality and privacy laws and are no longer able to inform parishes of admissions of parishioners. It is now necessary for either the patient, him/her self, or a family member to notify the parish of his/her hospitalization. Arrangements then can be made for the parish priest to visit the patient.

Because of privacy laws we do not publish the names of the sick in our bulletin or announce them at Mass unless the patient or a family member gives us permission to do so.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be administered upon request prior to a scheduled hospital admission or before any elective surgery. Please call the rectory 973-694-5700. All calls are kept confidential.

St. Joseph's Table - Prizes Needed

The St. Joseph's Table committee is already planning for the upcoming St. Joseph's Table, 50/50 and basket raffle to be held on Sunday, March 17, 2019. Currently we are asking parishioners for donations of new items to be included in the basket prizes. We also need empty baskets for the prizes. Please bring your donated items to the community room during the month of February or give them directly to a St. Joseph's Table committee member. If you have any questions, please see Daniela Ferrara.

Eva's Kitchen Outreach Ministry

On Saturday March 2nd, Annunciation Parish will be preparing and serving a hot midday meal for those in need at Eva's Kitchen in Paterson. The success of this important Ministry depends on your support. There are a number of opportunities in which you can participate. Please choose one or more of the following ways that best suit your time.

1. Preparation of ziti with tomato sauce (please par-cook the ziti)
2. Preparation of meatballs (with or without tomato sauce).
3. Fresh fruit (bananas and oranges preferred).
4. Volunteer to serve lunch at Eva's.

Please drop off food donations at the Annunciation kitchen on Saturday, March 2nd by 9:30am. If you are volunteering to serve the meal at Eva's, we will be leaving Annunciation at 10am. Sign-up sheets can be found at both entrances of the Church. Thank you! Call Carrie Fohlinger with any questions 973-595-9083.
