Let them be merciful and zealous, and let them walk according to the truth of the Lord, who became the servant of all.

This description of the role of deacons was applied to Deacon Joe Crowley so many times these past few days by parishioners and clergy who spoke of him. I wish I had had the opportunity to know him better. I met him the first week of my assignment to Annunciation and only a few more times after that. My first impression, in spite of his illness, was of "a vibrant man of God." I am grateful for his words to me: Father Ricardo, seek God and focus yourself in Him. I pray that I may follow his advice.

From everything I have learned about Joe and his family this has been their focus. In the name of the parish, I thank them for that. I thank Deacon Joe, his wife and family for living a life of service. Diakonia is the Greek word we find in the Act of the Apostles, chapter 6, when we see the first seven deeply spiritual and prudent men selected for special service to the Church. Joe's ordination in 1999 was not the beginning of his commitment to service. He learned service throughout his life and especially in his involvement in the Knights of Columbus. His ordination was the natural outlet for his sacrificial love and generosity.

As pastor, I am appreciative for what Joe's presence contributed to our faith community. He lived a Christian life of prayer and faith in imitation of Christ, who came not to be served but to serve. He and Joan were an example of the glory of the Sacrament of Matrimony in their unified faithfulness and loving care. In his vocation as minister of Word, Charity, and Altar, Joe reminds his brothers and sisters of what each of us, by reason of our baptism, should be doing as members of the Church. All of our God-given talents should be used in the pursuit of holiness.

Deacon Joseph Crowley animated the human, spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral dimensions of our parish. We are so thankful for having known him. May he rest in peace.

Missionary Cooperative Collection

We welcome Fr. Francis Breen, a Maryknoll missionary who will speak at all of the Masses today. Maryknoll is the popular name for the Catholic Foreign Mission Society of America, which was founded more than 100 years ago to follow Christ's command to preach the Gospel to all the nations. They serve principally among the poor in places where the Church is unknown or in great need. For more information visit www.maryknollsociety.org.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Holy Hour or Eucharistic Adoration is the Roman Catholic devotional tradition of spending an hour or more in Eucharistic adoration in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

In 1673 St. Margaret Mary Alacoque stated that she had a vision of Jesus in which she was instructed to spend an hour every Thursday night to meditate on the sufferings of Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane. This practice later became widespread among Catholics.

Annunciation Parish will hold Eucharistic Adoration every Wednesday during the year beginning on Wed., Sept. 18, 2019. This time of prayer is open to all parishioners/Christians who want to be alone and in private with Our Lord Jesus Christ in his real Presence in the Most Holy Eucharist. The schedule will be as follows:

7:30 a.m. Morning Mass

9:00 a.m. The Lord will be exposed to be adored

11:50 a.m. A discreet reposition to the Lord will be taken beginning in October when 12:05 Mass resumes. Exposition of the Lord will follow the 12:05 Mass.

3:00 p.m. Chaplet of Divine Mercy

4:00 p.m. Reposition and Benediction
