Marriage and a Church Wedding

Last weekend, we printed the opening portion of Bishop Serratelli's Pastoral Letter on Marriage. Bishop invited us to place ourselves in the scene of the Wedding Feast at Cana as portrayed by Veronese in the 16th century. Bishop calls our attention to the importance of Christ as the center of a Christian Wedding.

[2] The marriage of Christians is never a private event. It is a religious event made sacred by the presence of Christ. It is a union that affects not just two people but the entire community.

[3] The institution of marriage is in the midst of a great cultural crisis. The radical individualism that permeates our society is divorcing marriage from its life-giving roots within the Christian community. Many no longer see marriage as a sacred event. They reduce it to a mere partnership of two individuals.

[4] In fact, the number of marriages is declining. Almost forty-nine percent of adults in the United States between the ages of 18-64 are currently married. This is an all-time low. People are choosing to cohabitate rather than to marry. Almost 18 million Americans are now living with an unmarried partner.

[5] There are twice as many young and middle-aged Americans who cohabitate than there were twenty-five years ago. And, a staggering sixty-six percent of married couples have lived together before they marry. Clearly, the religious significance of a man and woman united by the sacred bond of matrimony is quickly disappearing from the American landscape.

[6] Besides the decline in the numbers of those entering marriage, there has been an increase of those who no longer marry in a church. Couples are choosing to exchange their vows in barns, on farms, on mountains, in hotels, restaurants, country clubs, museums, wineries, in gardens and parks, on boats or at the beach. According to a recent survey, only twenty-six percent of couples in the United States celebrated their wedding in a religious institution. That is almost half the number of ten years ago.

To be continued next week.

2019 Bishop's Annual Appeal

"For I Was Hungry . . ."

One of the benefits of giving to our Bishop's Annual Appeal is the knowledge that the funds stay in our own Diocese and only support important needs in Morris, Passaic and Sussex Counties. The local connection means that you may be helping your next-door neighbor, a former pastor now living in our priests' retirement residence, the store owner you see each day as you shop in town - perhaps even a family member. Please help your neighbor in need and make a pledge to the Annual Appeal today! For your convenience, you can make an online gift or pledge at www.2019appeal.org.

Altar Flower Donatton

The altar flowers have been donated for the intentions of Vicki A. Versoza on the occasion of her birthday by loving husband, Joe.

Please Pray for Our Sick

Dear Father of love and mercy, hear our prayers for the sick members of our community and for all who are in need: Dave Murphy, Jay Frost, Evelyn Boissonneault, Bernadette Jaros, Dora Sannasardo, Hank Oswald, Fr. Dan Kelly, Msgr. Mark Giordano, Gianna Matthews., Jim Piatti, Don Molino, Silvio Peroni & Elena Lao.

BLESSED MOTHER FLOWER MEMORIAL

For those who wish to remember a loved one at a weekend Mass, may we suggest offering the flowers for the Blessed Mother altar, which will be there for the weekend and into the week following. The flowers will be ordered by the parish and mention of the intention will be placed in the bulletin. The cost of flowers for the altar of our Blessed Mother is $35.00. You may also donate the Sanctuary Lamp for a specific weekend. The cost is $10.00

If you would like to donate the flowers or the Sanctuary Lamp, please call the Parish Office 973-694-5700.

NEW PARISHIONERS

We welcome all new parishioners to our parish and invite you to introduce yourself to the Priest after Mass or visit us at the Parish Office to register. If you have been attending our Church regularly but have not registered we invite you to do so. Also, if you would like to have your house blessed please give us a call at 973-694-5700. We look forward to meeting you.

Go to www.abvm-wayne.org and sign up for Online Giving. Simply click on "create an account". Then, enter the needed information, and submit. You will get an email with a verification link to finish setting up your account. If you do not see the email, check your spam folder. It's that simple to give anytime and from anywhere using a computer, smartphone or tablet.

Eva's Kitchen Outreach

On Saturday November 2nd, Annunciation Parish will be preparing and serving a hot midday meal for those in need at Eva's Kitchen in Paterson. The success of this important Ministry depends on your support. There are a number of opportunities in which you can participate. Please choose one or more of the following ways that best suit your time.

1. Preparation of ziti with tomato sauce (please par-cook the ziti)
2. Preparation of meatballs (with or without tomato sauce).
3. Fresh fruit (bananas and oranges preferred).
4. Volunteer to serve lunch at Eva's. 20 volunteers are needed.

Please drop off food donations at the Annunciation kitchen on Saturday, November 2nd by 10:00am. If you are volunteering to serve the meal at Eva's, we will be leaving Annunciation at 10:30 am. Sign-up sheets can be found at the Chapel entrance of the Church. Thank you! Call or text Carrie Fohlinger with any questions 862-226-9206.
