REMEMBER ANNUNCIATION PARISH IN YOUR WILL

A Reflection by Fr. Ricardo

It's jokingly said that one of the most painful motions a man can make is to reach down to pull his wallet out of his pocket. That's especially true when he's going to open his wallet to make a contribution. But as the reading from 2 Maccabees 7 makes clear, men are willing to suffer pain and even death for something they believe in. And what's more worthy of our pain – either physical or emotional – than the ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ carried out through his Church?

The seven brothers and their mother who died for the practice of their faith in the reading from 2 Maccabees did so because of their hope for the resurrection. Jesus in the Gospel reading from Luke 20 reaffirms that hope as one of the basic doctrines of Christianity. This life is not the end. At the end of time, our bodies will rise again and be rejoined to our souls.

The belief that death is not the end means how we live in this life is important and has eternal consequences. If it were true that this life is all there is, then why not live by the motto, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die" (I Cor 15:32)? There would be no point in living except to experience as much immediate pleasure as possible.

But the truth of the resurrection – with the accompanying judgment – means that our life has purpose, and we are responsible to God who gave us life and will raise us from the dead. In gratitude for his gifts – the time we enjoy, the talents we have, the treasure we receive, even life itself – we return a portion of them to his service. We'll actually experience joy in this life, and even greater joy in the next.

There may be some pain, at least psychological pain, in a life of stewardship. We'll probably forgo some things that would give us pleasure. But the ultimate reward of a life as a steward is worth far more pain than any lack we'll experience here will cause.

We are not alone, however, as we seek to live as stewards. We may feel discouragement from time to time. St. Paul assures us in the reading from 2 Thessalonians that "the Lord is faithful" and by his grace he will direct our hearts "to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ."

Let us so live and so use the time, talent, and treasure entrusted to us in this life that we can look forward with hope and eager expectation to our resurrection at the end of time!

From the Desk of Fr. Ricardo

My Dear Friends,

One of the things that I am most conscious of as Pastor is the frequency with which I need to ask the people of our parish to be generous. In these times, people struggle to make ends meet in their own homes and families and so it is always with trepidation that I ask for people to be generous to their parish family when they have so many other pressing concerns.

The people of Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish are wonderful and giving; they always come through. Please know how grateful I am to you for your participation in the Bishop's Annual Appeal Campaign 2019.

The people of our parish are remembered in my prayers each day, especially at the Eucharist. I want you to know that you and your intentions will be especially remembered by me in gratitude for your faithfulness and goodness to our Parish and Diocese.

May the peace and joy of the Risen Lord be with you and your family and give you good health and every other blessing. With gratitude, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Ricardo Ortega, Jr., Pastor

2019 Bishop's Annual Appeal In-Pew Follow-Up Weekend "For I Was Hungry . . ."

With the help of funding from the Bishop's Annual Appeal, Nazareth Village, our diocesan priests' retirement residence, has been a home over the years for a number of our priests. These priests reside there while also serving parishes by celebrating Mass. The Appeal also helps in providing financial support for the extraordinary healthcare needs of our priests. Your gift to the Bishop's annual Appeal is a concrete way to recognize the wonderful pastoral work of those priests who have dedicated many years of faithful service to our Church. Please make a gift to the Annual Appeal today as a way of showing thanks. For your convenience, you can make an online gift or pledge at www.2019appeal.org.
