Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

This Solemnity is a fairly recent addition to the Liturgical Year. In 1925, while Europe was still recovering from the shock of the devastation of World War I, Pope Pius XI proclaimed this feast to emphasize the sovereignty of the divine over the atheistic secularism that was sweeping the world.

In Luke's gospel, Jesus expresses His kingly power by hanging on the cross between criminals as leaders and soldiers mock Him. He saved others, let him save himself. Tradition has given the name, Dismas, to the good thief in the story. Dismas is a nobody, who at the end of his life has a transforming moment of grace. Dismas participates in a unique moment of human history. Dismas is present at the moment when God's power is at its height. It is the sacred moment when the great high priest is reconciling the world to God.

This moment that focuses on lowliness and vulnerability teaches us that honesty is the remedy for our sins, acceptance of our powerlessness is the key to receiving paradise. The way the power of Jesus works is that He never used it to His own advantage. When we accept the truth that we cannot save ourselves, then we can more easily go forth and bring salvation to anyone who is being crucified by an unforgiving world.

Please Pray for Our Sick

Dear Father of love and mercy, hear our prayers for the sick members of our community and for all who are in need: Dave Murphy, Evelyn Boissonneault, Bernadette Jaros, Dora Sannasardo, Hank Oswald, Fr. Dan Kelly, Msgr. Mark Giordano, Gianna Matthews, Jim Piatti, Don Molino, Silvio Peroni, Jim Maloy, Kathy Cipoletti, Joe Moskal and Theresa Contento.
