MISSION OF OUR PARISH

We are a Roman Catholic parish encompassing St Peter's Church, Our Lady of the Rosary Church (Seton Shrine) and St Joseph's Chapel. We are the first Catholic parish in New York State but our legacy in Lower Manhattan predates the American Revolution. The parish has served as a safe haven in the past for the needy immigrants and victims and rescue personnel in the wake of 9/11. St Elizabeth Ann Seton and Venerable Pierre Toussaint performed works of charity in the parish that inspire us to serve area residents and multitudes visiting from around the world.

PROPHET TO THE NATIONS

God's words in today's First Reading point us beyond Jeremiah to Jesus. Like Jeremiah, Jesus was consecrated in the womb and sent as a "prophet to the nations" (see Luke 1:31-33).

Like the prophets before Him, Jesus too faces hostility. In today's Gospel, the crowd in His hometown synagogue quickly turns on Him, apparently demanding a sign, some proof of divine origins - that He's more than just "the son of Joseph."

The sign He gives them is that of the prophets Elijah and Elisha. From their colorful careers Jesus draws two stories. In each, the prophets bypass "many...in Israel" to bestow God's blessings on non-Israelites who had faith that the prophets were men of God (see 1 Kings 17:1-16; 2 Kings 5:1-14). "None...not one" in Israel was found deserving, Jesus emphasizes.

His point isn't lost on His audience. They know He's likening them to the "many...in Israel" in the days of the prophets. That's why they try to shove Him off the cliff. As He promised to protect Jeremiah, the Lord delivers Jesus from those who would crush Him.

And as were Elijah and Elisha, Jesus is sent to proclaim God's gift of salvation - not exclusively to one nation or people, but to all who realize in faith that from the womb God alone is their hope, their rescuer, their "rock of refuge," as we sing in today's Psalm.

Prophecies, Paul tells us in today's Epistle, are partial and pass away "when the perfect comes." In Jesus, the word of the prophets has been brought to perfection, fulfilled in those who have ears to hear, as He declares in today's Gospel.

Greater than the gifts of faith and hope, Jesus shows us how to love as He loved, to love God as our Father, as One Who formed us in the womb and destined us to hear His saving Word.

This is the salvation, the "mighty works of the Lord," that we, as the Psalmist, are thankful to proclaim daily in the Eucharist.

FEAST OF ST. BLAISE
February 3rd

The feast of St. Blaise is celebrated on Wednesday, February 3rd. There will be blessing of the throats at St. Peter's Church, Our Lady of the Rosary and St. Joseph's Chapel after all masses.

Encyclical on the Environment

Released on June 18, 2015, Pope Francis's encyclical, Laudato Si': On Care for Our Common Home highlights several basic teachings. First, the destruction of God's creation, and specifically climate change, is a moral issue. Second, there is an integral connection between our destruction of "Mother Earth" and the suffering of the poor, especially those in developing countries. Finally, immediate actions are required, by individuals, who must change their lives and by the community of nations. Father James Martin, S.J. explores these teachings in a four-minute video: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=a\_lqFTYLc\_4 or google "James Martin video Top 10 Things You Need to Know about Laudate Si"

"Let us protect with love all that god has given us!"
— Pope Francis

Thank you for All the HARD work!!

We owe a special Thank You to all of the hard working people that shoveled the snow this past weekend. Despite the blowing winds and cold temperatures they cleared the steps at St. Peter's and Our Lady of the Rosary for the brave souls that ventured out to mass.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

Next weekend, February 7, in all the parishes of the Catholic Church across the world, a special collection is taken up to support the charities of our Holy Father. With the funds realized through this collection known as Peter's Pence, Pope Francis is able to assist our most needy brothers and sisters in the Lord in every corner of the globe.

The faithful of the archdiocese have over the years, been most generous in support of this collection. It has always been for us, not only an exercise in charity, but also a witness to our respect and affection for the Successor of Saint Peter.

Please be as generous as your means will allow.

Our Lady of the Rosary Sunday Coffee Hour
