cover picture: Saint John Fisher sculpted (1510–1515) in polychromed terracotta by Pietro Torrigiano (1472–1528)

St John Fisher was born in Yorkshire in 1459 and educated at Cambridge. He became a truly Renaissance man, being among the English pioneers of the rediscovery of the classical studies that led to a rebirth (“renaissance”) of the knowledge of the ancient Christian wisdom of Israel, Greece, and Rome. In 1497, he was appointed confessor to the mother of King Henry VII and became closely associated in her endowments to Cambridge University; he created scholarships, introduced Greek and Hebrew into the curriculum, and brought in the world-famous Erasmus as professor of Divinity and Greek. In 1504, he became bishop of Rochester, chancellor of Cambridge, and tutor to Prince Henry who was to become Henry VIII. From 1527, this humble scholar actively opposed the King's divorce proceedings against Catherine, his wife in the sight of God, and resisted the king's encroachment on the Church. Unlike all the other English bishops, St John refused to take the oath which acknowledged the legitimacy of their king's adulterous marriage. He was imprisoned in the Tower of London in April 1534. The next year Pope Paul III made this prisoner a cardinal. Henry retaliated by having him beheaded within a month. A half hour before his execution, St John opened his New Testament for the last time and his eyes fell on the following words from St John's Gospel: “Eternal life is this: to know You, the only true God, and Him Whom You have sent, Jesus Christ. I have given You glory on earth by finishing the work You gave me to do. Do You now, Father, give me glory at Your side.” Closing the book, he observed: “There is enough learning in that to last me the rest of my life.” His feast is June 22.

sacramental life

Where

First reception of Eucharist and of Penance as well as reception of Baptism, Confirmation, and Matrimony may only be in one's own parish church, unless with good reason the pastor deems it necessary to do otherwise.

Baptism

To have a child baptized, parents must register and attend a class as a couple (unless attendance just isn't possible, in which case some discussion with Kathy Kehnast will be necessary). Sessions are held quarterly for both parishes. Try to attend before the child is born. Please don't ask if you “have to go.” This is an opportunity to meet with parents of children about the same age as your little one; those parents are in the same wonderful boat as you are. At least one parent and both godparents need to be practicing Catholics. If you don't attend Sunday Mass regularly (a basic part of being a practicing Catholic!), there is something you can do: Start coming to Sunday Mass.

Penance

The priest is available for Penance

- at St Bernadette: on Saturday at 3 PM and Thursday at 5:30 PM, and
- at St Mary Bremen: on Sunday at 8 AM.

Every Catholic priest is available whenever there is a need. There are Penance opportunities for St Bernadette School children four times in the year so that they will learn the beauty of frequent confession. The Church's law requires us to receive the sacrament of Penance at least once a year.

Anointing and Care of the Sick

The priest gives the Anointing of the Sick to one who is dangerously ill, facing major surgery, or suffering from the ravages of old age.

- We celebrate the sacrament communally at a Sunday Mass before Advent and during the Easter season so that we can all pray with you for “health of mind and body.”
- The priest brings Penance, Anointing, and Holy Communion to the sick or shut in. Call the parish office to let us know before a hospitalization or when it has been too long since the sacraments were last available.

Holy Matrimony

Couples wishing to marry should contact the parish office six months before a wedding. Why so long? Because this sacrament, not just the ceremony, requires serious preparation. And the Church needs to be involved in that preparation. Catholics who marry outside the Church have left the sacramental life and need to change that situation before receiving the other sacraments. The Church needs to support couples through the years of married life. That's why our diocese offers programs to enhance married life. To learn about these programs, watch the weekly bulletin.

At Prayer with the Church

Pray with the Church Today

O God, strength of those who hope in you, graciously hear our pleas,
 and, since without you mortal frailty can do nothing,
 grant us always the help of your grace,
 that in following your commands
 we may please you by our resolve and our deeds.
 Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 one God, for ever and ever.

'Tis the Season

Make today the first day of the new season of Christian Initiation. The RCIA (Rites of Christian Initiation of Adults) marks by ritual several of the steps on the way to entry into the Church. I would like to declare today the day we begin praying, thinking about, and talking to next year's Easter entrants into the Catholic Church. It is time to begin the coming year's project of Evangelization! The Holy Spirit empowered the Church to go out to all the world and tell the Good News. Now is the season for prayer, thought, and talking with/to/about our friends and neighbors, getting them ready for the RCIA class that will begin in late Summer!

Too shy for that kind of thing? Get over it! You are a Christian, aren't you? This is what Christians do. They tell the Good News. They do it respectfully, gently, and as intelligently as they can. But they do it! If you care about a person, you care about her or his eternal salvation. God can save people outside of membership in our Church. But the Church, since she provides her members with the sacraments, is the way the Lord Jesus has given to us as the ordinary means for us to receive that salvation. To neglect to share that gift is to neglect something your friend or neighbor or spouse may need. Start today.

Both Parishes

Retirement Reception

Mark your calendars for a retirement reception for Father Kessler. It will be hosted by both parishes next Sunday, June 24, from 12:30 until 2 PM in the St Bernadette parish hall. Everyone is invited Members of both parishes are invited to contribute cookies for the reception. Cookies may be dropped off at either church office before 2 PM on Friday, June 22, or at the St Bernadette parish hall before the 11 AM Mass on Sunday, June 24. If you are able to bring cookies, to help with planning please call: Mary Guinan at (740) 653-4616, Amy Woo at (414) 882-1863, or Cathy Young at (740) 536-7793. Thank you!

By the way, after July 10, Father Kessler will live and help out at St Catharine Parish in Columbus. His address will be

500 South Gould Road, Columbus, OH 43209

His email will continue to be:

wmthomaskessler @ icloud . com.

His cell phone will also continue to be:

(614) 634-0499.

As we go to press, the next pastor has not yet been named, but Bishop Campbell assured Fr Kessler that he will be named soon.

Peter's Pence

Next Sunday we will have the Peter's Pence Collection to provide Pope Francis with funds to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. For information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

On the Bottle

Remember the PDHC's Baby Bottle Campaign by bringing the loose change you collected from Mother's Day to Father's Day in the borrowed baby bottle to help parents and would-be parents in need. This will go a long way to continue offering free pregnancy tests, ultrasounds, material assistance and life-affirming programs to strengthen families. It's a way to give thanks to our father and mother for choosing life ... and it helps a local family do the same.

Your Gift to the Food Pantry

The Bremen Food Pantry needs margarine or butter (among other things!). Place your donation in the refrigerator in the kitchen at St Mary parish hall. This will help the Pantry Open House in Bremen, on Saturday, June 30, from 9-11 AM, when any family in need can stop by to receive food assistance, with no prior registration or sign up needed.

This year marks the 150th anniversary of the founding of St Mary of the Springs Academy. A committee of Academy graduates is searching for memorabilia, including photos, yearbooks, and diplomas, for a permanent display at the Jubilee Museum in Columbus. St Mary Academy was a school for girls founded by the Dominican sisters in 1830 in Somerset in response to the educational needs of frontier Catholics. When a fire destroyed the buildings, the sisters rebuilt in Columbus in 1868. To reflect the natural springs on the property, “of the Springs” was added to the name. The Academy closed in 1966. For information or donations, contact (614) 237-1379.

There Was a Catholic Reformation!

St Mary Parish in Lancaster offers a course this summer titled “True Reformers—Saints of the Catholic Reformation.” In this 6-part DVD series from the Augustine Institute, Dr Christopher Blum explores the lives of six saints who spearheaded the Church’s renewal after the turbulence and confusion caused by the Protestant Reformation. You will discover that their call to return to the adventure of following Christ is just as compelling today as it was 500 years ago. Deepen your understanding of the Church’s response to the Protestant Reformation through her saints. The series happens on Monday evenings from 7 to 8:30 PM from June 18 through July 30, and on Wednesday mornings from 8 to 9:30 AM from June 27 through Aug 15, in the Spirit Center. Workbook cost is $17. Contact Brian McCauley at (740) 653-5054.
