THIRTY FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, CYCLE B

«Which commandment is the first of all?»

Today, it is common to speak of the love towards the brethren, christian justice, etc. but the love towards God is seldom spoken.

So we have to look at the answer Jesus gives to the lawyer, who, with the best intention asks: "Which commandment is the first of all?" (Mk 12:29). It was not surprising because among so many laws and regulations, the Jews sought to establish a principle that would unify all formulations of God's will.

Jesus responds with a simple sentence that, even today, Jews recite several times a day: "Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength" (Mk 12:29-30). Meaning, Jesus reminds us that, first, we must proclaim the primacy of God's love as man's fundamental task, and this is logical and fair, because God loved us first. However, for Jesus it is not enough to remind us about this fundamental and basic commandment but adds that one must love one's neighbor as oneself. And, as Pope Benedict XVI says, "the love to God and the love to your neighbor are thus inseparable, they form a single commandment. But both live from the love that comes from God, who loved us first. "

But one aspect that is not discussed is that Jesus commands us to love our neighbor as ourselves, not more than oneself, not less either. We deduce that he commands us that we should love ourselves, since we're also the handiwork of God and his creatures, loved by Him.

If we have then, as a rule of life, the double commandment of love to God and neighbor, Jesus tells us: "You are not far from the kingdom of God" (Mk 12:34). If we live this ideal, we will make of the earth a general rehearsal of Heaven.

Dear Parishioner:
Please Take and Read each weekly Bulletin, you will be pleasantly surprised on the amount of useful information you will find. As I'm sure you have noticed our collections are very low; we need your help! The Church continues to struggle and at times finds itself unable to meet its financial responsibilities. Your weekly contributions make it possible for our parish to continue to flourish and prosper; without there is no St Anthony's Church! We know many of our families are also struggling and understand the financial burdens of life, but if everyone gives "just a little" we will be the thriving parish we once were.
God Bless You, Fr. Eider Reyes

Rifa 50/50 en apoyo de la parroquia. No necesita estar presente para ganar.
El sorteo será el Domingo, 18 de noviembre después de la Misa de las 10:00am.
