EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, CYCLE A

«Bring them here to me»

Today, Jesus shows us just how much He wants to involve us in his saving work. He who had created the heavens and the earth out of nothing, could have easily created a rich banquet from nothing to satiate the multitudes. But He preferred to work the miracle starting with the best his disciples could give him. «We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish» (Mt 14:17), they said. «Bring them here to me» (Mt 14:18), Jesus replied. The Lord was able to multiply that meager donation—not enough even to feed a typical family—to nourish about 5000 families.

The Lord showed the same protocol at the wedding feast of Cana. He who created all the seas could easily have filled the six 30-gallon containers with choice wine from scratch. But He again wanted to involve his creatures in the miracle, by having them fill the containers with water first.

We see the same principle in the celebration of the Eucharist. Jesus begins not from nothing, nor from grain and grapes, but from bread and wine, which already contain within the work of human hands.

The late Cardinal François Xavier Nguyen van Thuan, imprisoned from 1975-1988 by the Vietnamese communists, wondered how he could further Christ's kingdom and care for his flock while undergoing the brutal suffering of solitary confinement. He realized he might not be able to do much from a prison cell, but at least each day he could offer to the Lord his “five loaves and two fish,” and let God do the rest. The Lord multiplied those little efforts into a witness that has inspired not only the Vietnamese but the whole Church.

Today the Lord is asking us, his modern disciples, to give the crowds something to eat (cf. Mt 14:16). No matter how much or how little we have, let us give it to the Lord and let him take it from there.

We will be limited to 25% occupancy. This means no more than 50 people at any Mass on a “first come, first served” basis. Everyone over the age of 2 must wear a face mask while in the church. No admittance once mass begins. Social distancing must be respected.

Congratulations to our Catechumens. Felicidades a nuestros Catecúmenos.

Prayer for the End of COVID-19 Pandemic...

Merciful Heavenly Father,
You shows Your love to all of Your creation. Keep us under the shadow of your mercy. Lord, sustain and support the anxious, be with those who care for the sick, and lift up all who are brought low. We come before you asking for a quick control of the COVID-19, currently ravaging our world. We pray that an effective medicine to combat the sickness be speedily found. We pray for the relevant Health Authorities and the Governments may take appropriate steps for the good of the people. Look upon us in your mercy and forgive us our failings. We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Amen.
