OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST,
KING OF THE UNIVERSE, CYCLE A

«Whenever you did this to these little ones who are my brothers and sisters, you did it to me»
Today's Jesus speaks to us of the definite judgment. And with this metaphoric image about sheep and goats, He makes us realize that it will be a judgment of love. «We shall be judged on love», St. John of the Cross tells us.
St. Ignatius of Loyola, another mystic, in his meditation Contemplation to Attain Love, also reminds us “that love is proven not in words but in actions”. And today's Gospel is very illustrative of this fact. Every act of charity we perform, we do it to the very Christ: «For I was hungry and you fed me, I was thirsty and you gave me drink. I was a stranger and you welcomed me into your house. I was naked and you clothed me. I was sick and you visited me. I was in prison and you came to see me» (Mt 25:34-36). Even more so: «Whenever you did this to these little ones who are my brothers and sisters, you did it to me» (Mt 25:40).

This evangelic passage, which keeps our feet on solid ground, places the feast of Christ the King in its proper place. Christ's royalty has nothing to do with arrogance, but it simply is the fundamental reality of existence: love will have the last word.
Jesus shows us that the true meaning of his royalty —or authority— lies upon service to others. He claimed to be ‘Teacher’ and ‘Master’ (cf. Jn 13:13), and also that He was a King (cf. Jn 18:37), but he practiced his leadership by washing his disciples' feet (cf. Jn 13:4 ff.), and He reigned by giving his life on the Cross. First, Jesus Christ reigns from a humble cradle (in a lonely manger!) and, afterwards, from a very uncomfortable throne, that is, the Cross.
On the Cross there was an inscription that said «Jesus the Nazorean, the King of the Jews» (Jn 19:19): what appearances seem to deny, the profound reality of the mystery of God confirms it, in as much Jesus reigns from his Cross and He judges us in love.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING FOR GRACES AND BLESSINGS

O most powerful protector Saint Anthony of Padua, I am prostrate at thy feet, my heart full of gratitude and thanksgiving for the grace thou hast granted me through my poor prayers. Thy powerful intercession was the only hope of relief for my afflictions.

O most amiable protector Saint Anthony, I pray that I will never cease to bless and thank thee for the grace thou hast granted me. Thanks be to God for the graces He bestowed on thee. Blessed be the Baby Jesus, Who felt the caresses of thy sweet hands and rested his head on thy breast. Blessed be the Holy Virgin Mary, who loved thee so much and guided thee in the way of sanctity. Dear Saint Anthony express my sincere thanks to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost and the Most High Virgin Mary, for ever and ever. Amen.

Campaña para los ministerios diocesanos “Ama a tu prójimo”
 En esta época del año, cuando pensamos celebrar el Día de acción de gracias, nuestros deseos y oraciones serán por todos aquellos que han muerto a causa del coronavirus y también por las muchas familias impactadas. Serán por aquellos trabajadores en primera línea frente al COVID19 quienes desinteresadamente se preocupan por tantos. Serán por todos lo que estarán padeciendo de alguna forma. En nuestra diócesis, decenas de miles de nuestros vecinos en profunda necesidad buscan de nuestros servicios en nuestra Agencia de caridades católicas y con la ayuda de la Campaña para los ministerios diocesanos encuentran una puerta abierta y una respuesta compasiva. ¡Por favor haz una promesa de contribuir a nuestra Campaña!. Para tu comodidad, puedes hacer un donativo en línea o una promesa de contribuir en www.2020appeal.org

Diocesan Ministries Appeal “Love Thy Neighbor” This time of year, as we plan to celebrate Thanksgiving, our thoughts and prayers will be for all those who passed away from the coronavirus and the many families impacted. It will be for those on the frontlines of COVID-19 who selflessly care for so many. It will be for all who may be hurting in some way. In our own diocese, tens of thousands of your neighbors in profound need seek out the services of our Catholic Charities and, with help from the Diocesan Ministries Appeal, they find an open door and a compassionate response. Please make a pledge to our Appeal today! For your convenience, you can make an online gift or pledge at www.2020appeal.org.
