

August 16, 2020

Dear Parents and Guardians,

I want to welcome you the 2020-21 school year. This is a very different time for all of us. It is a time of uncertainty filled with concern, fears and hopes. The principals, teachers and staff members have worked tirelessly over the summer to prepare for the return of students to our campuses. They have been diligent in planning for the health and safety of your children; the educational program; the social/emotion well-being and the spiritual needs of all.

We are not sure what the next few weeks or months will bring, but know that we will be monitoring the situation on a daily basis. The schools will be abiding by the Archdiocese of Santa Fe School Re-opening Mandates, the CDC recommendations, American Academy of Pediatrics and any New Mexico State Public Health Orders. As I am sure you have heard many times from your principals, we must be flexible during this time.

It is our hope that we are able to continue to offer in person classes. It is critical for all of us to keep the lines of communication open. If you have questions or concerns, please contact your child's teacher or the principal. Please know that the health and safety of your child is of utmost importance to us. I wish you a happy and successful school year.

Sincerely,

Susan M. Murphy

Superintendent of Catholic Schools
Archdiocese of Santa Fe
