Stewardship Quote

In today's first reading, the Israelites are urged to love their neighbors as themselves. In the Gospel, Jesus spells out how we are to do that---to give generously to those who ask of us and not to turn our backs on those who seek to borrow.

Pope's Intention for February

Comfort for the Afflicted

That all those who are afflicted, especially the poor, refugees, and marginalized, may find welcome and comfort in our communities.

Opening Prayer

Grant, we pray, almighty God, that, always pondering spiritual things, we may carry out in both word and deed that which is pleasing to you. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

- ◆ Archbishop Jackels is starting a series of reflections on the Mass — This week we will publish his introduction, with the rest of the series to follow in coming weeks.
- ◆ An article will examine Catholic Charities' Refugee Resettlement Program in the archdiocese. We have spoken with Catholic Charities officials who explain the program and with some refugees recently settled locally. The article also delves into how the recent presidential executive order has affected the program amid a heated debate over national security.
- ◆ Students from Mason City Catholic Schools recently participated in 'Penny Wars' to aid a baby pantry; a teacher from St. Jude School in Cedar Rapids was honored with an education award for excellence
