A note from Fr. Abuchi

When the distribution of communion is finished, the priest and faithful spend some time praying privately. The communion rite comes to an end when the priest says the prayer after communion.

On the cross our Blessed Savior says, "It is finished" (John 19:30). This means he has triumphed and the work of salvation has finished. According to Archbishop Fulton Sheen, "Jesus has planted the wheat field; we must gather it into our barns. He has finished the Sacrifice of Calvary; we must finish the Mass." The priest must stay at the altar until the Mass is finished. As a matter of fact, real Catholics should not leave the Mass before it ends. So the Mass concludes with the priest saying, "Go in peace the Mass is ended."

It does not end when we are dismissed by a priest, it must continue in our daily life, in our homes, in our families and in our works. We have offered ourselves to God and we now must live out that offering. After having received the Lord's blessing, and even more so after having received Him in Holy Communion, Christ comes to us, into our life and world, to help us live out our offering and to help bring Him to the world and the world to Him. Thus, Christ tells us "Go! Live the Mass! Live out the offering of yourself!" "We have offered Him our eyes; therefore we must be careful at what we look, for our eyes are consecrated to God. We have offered Him our ears, tongue, legs, arms, our whole body; therefore we must be careful how we use them, for they belong to God. We have offered Him our soul with its faculties; therefore we must orient our soul towards the Lord. We have surrendered ourselves to the will of God; therefore we must learn how to accept life with all its demands, hardships, and joys, for the glory of God. Our whole life must be so lived and every action must be so performed that we can offer them to God." Most of all, we have to live it out by bringing peace and love to all that we meet.

The Tricky Tray needs help!

It's time to start planning our annual tricky tray. The tricky tray is our LARGEST fundraiser of the year, which provides us with funds to help defray our annual maintenance costs and any unexpected expenses that might come up during the year. The last couple of years, our volunteer base has been dwindling and it is getting harder and harder to continue with this important fundraiser. Please take time to consider volunteering some of your time to this important parish event. Please contact Jenn Durso for more information. 862-268-3462

Eucharistic Ministers -

We are seeking the assistance of Eucharistic Ministers to help to bring Holy Communion to the residents of the Homestead Nursing Home on Sundays.

The dates of service is based upon the number of ministers who volunteer. As of now each minister serves at the Homestead one Sunday every five weeks.

It is a very rewarding experience to bring Holy Communion to those who have no way of going to Mass every Sunday.

If you are interested in joining us in this important ministry, kindly contact Dan Salvatore at 973-579-1908, or via e-mail at dan958@embarqmail.com

Our Lord reminds us of the abundant blessings that come from a generous heart. "Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." When you give your time, talent and financial resources to our parish, it strengthens our faith community in so many wonderful ways!

Did you know that there are also opportunities to make a legacy gift to Our Lady of Mount Carmel that will touch the lives of parishioners for generations to come? Please prayerfully consider remembering our parish in your will and estate plans. For more information, call our parish at 973-383-3566 or contact our diocesan development office at 973-777-8818, ext. 215 for further assistance and to discuss options that might work for you.
