The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time January 24, 2016

This past weekend we had the biggest Antioch group in our parish history. Seventy-five 10th graders came on the retreat with the assistance of twenty-five team members. Our Antioch coordinators Cayci Cordovano and Giulia Tino did an amazing job working with their teams. Indeed our Antioch experience is truly a partnership of high school seniors who exhibit such compassionate care to their 10th grade Confirmandi. Mrs. Stephanie Politi is the organizing force behind this amazing weekend. In her loving way she helps our teens prepare their faith-filled talks, advises, counsels and occasionally, being a mom herself, scolds. The results are well prepared talks which really impact the 10th graders and give them food for thought, discussion, and prayer. Our very own Lisa Paradiso is a student at Caldwell University, is an alumnus of the Academy and has been Mrs. Politi's assistant since this past summer. We had several Antioch alumni who returned from college to support this weekend. A big thank you to Kelly Malkinski, Lizzy Malkinski, Michael DiCaro and Alexandra Keenan.

Food is an important part of the Antioch weekend. Can you imagine feeding one hundred young people, two hungry priests and some other adults who weren't quite that hungry!!! A big thanks to our moms who prepared and brought food on Friday evening and to our ever generous Mike and Robin Giamarino for providing, preparing and serving delicious, healthy and plentiful meals on Saturday and Sunday.

We had two wonderful young people singing and playing Saturday night and at Sunday Mass. As usual, Lou was here with his drums and his great personality.

The theme of the weekend was "The Rock Becomes The Rose." Through talks given by some of our team, discussions on the talks, and music, our 10th graders discussed areas of faith pertinent to their own experience. We helped them to understand God who loves them unconditionally and invites them to be disciples on the journey. I'm very proud of our 10th graders. Please keep them in your prayers as we prepare them for the Sacrament of Confirmation this coming April.

Thank you to everyone who worked hard and supported our recent 50/50 fundraiser to help defray the cost to Poland. We brought in $13,250.00. Michael DiCaro pulled the winning ticket and I was delighted to see the winner was Nicole Biunno given by her mother Margaret. We the parish and the Biunno Family will each receive half the amount.

There's been a huge interest in our pilgrimage to Italy. To date we're almost fully booked. We have some seats left. So for those of you, who are on the fence, please decide soon so that you can join us on this wonderful trip. If you have any questions please contact Stephanie Politi.

The first graders had a lot of fun investigating sound. They learned about sound waves and how they can travel through objects. They also worked together to design and build their own instruments.

Ms. Sandra's class is reviewing their alphabet by playing letter bingo and matching games.

Sister Luciana observed Miss Lorie's class on Wednesdays for the past few weeks. The children came to know her and grew fond of her. She helped them with their work and read stories to them. This past Wednesday was her last week and we were sad to say goodbye to her, but we wish her well on her future endeavors.

Last week was "C" week in Miss Lorie's class. They did an experiment using a carnation. The carnations were put in different colored water and they observed them for 24 hours and wrote what they observed in their science journals.

SACRAMENTS

Baptism

We celebrate the sacrament of Baptism most Sundays. Parents are welcome to have the Baptism celebrated either at a week-end Mass or at the Liturgy of Baptism at 1:15. To make arrangements for Baptism please call Father Owen or Fr. Matthew. Godparents must be confirmed and be active members of the church and attend Mass regularly.

Sacrament of Reconciliation

Every Saturday at 8:15 – 8:45 and 4:45 – 5:15 (or by appointment with Fr. Owen or Fr. Matthew).

Sacrament of Marriage

Please contact Fr. Owen or Fr. Mathew and set up an appointment. Any Catholic couple needs approximately a year to prepare for the Sacrament of Marriage, which includes sessions with the Priest celebrating the marriage and attendance at Pre-Cana conferences.

Sacrament of the Sick / Hospital Visits

At St. Rose we are strongly committed to the spiritual care of the sick. Because of privacy laws, hospitals and nursing homes are not allowed to release the patient's religious affiliation. Therefore, we must depend on families of our sick parishioners to inform us of their whereabouts and condition. Please notify the parish office of any need for a home or hospital visit.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a program for people who seek full initiation in the Catholic Church through the reception of the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation, which are received at Easter Vigil. For information, please contact Fr. Owen or Fr. Matthew at the parish office.
