Mission Statement

We, the parish community of St. Dominic, Houston, TX, a multi-cultural community, joined together by faith in Jesus Christ and the Roman Catholic Church, commit ourselves to help each other grow in the understanding of our faith, celebrate this faith in Liturgy and live it out by using the gifts of each person in the service of others, especially those in need, so that in the end, we may become truly a community of faith: truly the people of God and be of service to all!

PLEASE LET US KNOW... If you or a loved one are hospitalized and would like to be added to the prayer list, have a visit, homebound, and receive Holy Communion or the Sacrament of Anointing. Call the Parish office @ 281-458-2910

Fr. Roger's Letter

Dear Friends in St. Dominic

Mother's day celebrates the glorious ideal of love and sacrifice called motherhood. It is a special day for all mothers. It is also a great opportunity for us to thank and show respect towards the lady who has done so much for us. Mother's Day means making our moms feel proud and special. The festival of 'Mother's Day' has come to become a part of our culture now. What it offers is an opportunity to honor and show our appreciations for our mother - the one person who has stood by us through thick and thin.

For those whose mothers and grandmothers are still alive - cherish them today. Hug and kiss them. Honor them. Thank them. For those whose mothers have gone home to the Lord, remember them. For all who bear the name Christian, the name of our eternal family, let us also honor the Mother of the Lord today. Her maternal care for Jesus still embraces all those who are joined to Him, as members of His Body, by that great new birth of Baptism. Finally, let us ask the Lord to open our eyes, and our hearts, to come to more fully understand the great mystery and gift of the Church as our Mother. Let us live our lives as Christians, by living in the heart of Mother Church, for the sake of the world into which we are sent to bear the Good News. To all MOTHERS---Happy Mother's Day!

On the Fifth Sunday of Easter Our Lord reminds that that we are called to continue his work and to achieve even greater things than he accomplished during his earthly ministry. He built his Church with growth in mind, generation after generation, founded on him and the Apostles. In response to the common-sense comment of doubting Thomas, Jesus Christ gives us the definitive answer to each one of these questions when he tells us that he is the way, the truth, and the life.

Actually, Jesus does not just give the answers; he is the answers. I am the way can translate into: What should you do? Follow me! Do what I have done.I am the truth means: What can you know? You can know everything, if only you know me; Knowing me, more and more every day, you know the secret behind the workings of the whole universe and the deepest yearnings of the human heart, because I made them both; I am the eternal Word, the very Wisdom of God.....I am the life means: What can you hope for? In me, through me, you can hope for the fullness of life that you long for in the very depths of your soul. You can hope for your very own room in my Father's house, in heaven - I have gone to prepare it for you.

In my Father's house all sorrows turn to joy, all weakness turns to strength, and life grows more alive as eternity unfolds. Christ is truly the living water that quenches every thirst. He is truly the light that scatters every type of darkness. The quest of every man and woman to satisfy the heart's deepest needs is the quest to seek his face. As St Augustine famously wrote....Our hearts are restless until they rest in God. And Jesus Christ is God.

Sincerely yours in Christ
Rev. Roger Estorque

Queridos Amigos en San Dominic,

El día de la madre celebra el glorioso ideal de amor y sacrificio llamado maternidad. Es un día especial para todas las madres. También es una gran oportunidad para agradecer y mostrar respeto hacia la dama que ha hecho tanto por nosotros. El Día de la Madre significa que nuestras madres se sientan orgullosas y especiales. El festival del 'Día de la Madre' ha llegado a ser parte de nuestra cultura ahora. Lo que ofrece es una oportunidad para honrar y mostrar nuestras apreciaciones por nuestra madre - la única persona que ha estado con nosotros a través de toda bueno o malo.

Para aquellos cuyas madres y abuelas todavía están vivas - acariciarlos hoy. Abraza y bésalos. Honrarlos. Agradéceles. Para aquellos cuyas madres han ido a casa del Señor, acuérdense de ellos. Para todos los que llevan el nombre de cristiano, el nombre de nuestra familia eterna, honremos también a la Madre del Señor hoy. Su cuidado maternal por Jesús aún abraza a todos aquellos que se unen a Él, como miembros de Su Cuerpo, por ese gran nuevo nacimiento del Bautismo. Por último, pidamos al Señor que abra nuestros ojos y nuestros corazones para llegar a comprender mejor el gran misterio y don de la Iglesia como nuestra Madre. Vivamos nuestras vidas como cristianos, viviendo en el corazón de la Madre Iglesia, por el bien del mundo en el cual somos enviados a llevar la Buena Nueva. ¡A todas las MADRES --- ¡El día de madre feliz!

En el Quinto Domingo de Pascua Nuestro Señor nos recuerda que estamos llamados a continuar su obra ya lograr cosas aún mayores que las realizadas durante su ministerio terrenal. Construyó su Iglesia con un crecimiento en mente, generación tras generación, fundada en él y en los Apóstoles. En respuesta al comentario de sentido común de la duda de Tomás, Jesucristo nos da la respuesta definitiva a cada una de estas preguntas cuando nos dice que él es el camino, la verdad y la vida.

En realidad, Jesús no sólo da las respuestas; Él es las respuestas. Yo soy el camino puede traducir en: ¿Qué debe hacer? ¡Sígueme! Haz lo que he hecho. ... Yo soy la verdad significa: ¿Qué puedes saber? Puedes saberlo todo, si me conoces; Conociéndome cada día más y más, sabéis el secreto detrás del funcionamiento de todo el universo y los anhelos más profundos del corazón humano, porque los hice a ambos; Yo soy la Palabra eterna, la misma Sabiduría de Dios Yo soy la vida significa: ¿Qué puedes esperar? En mí, a través de mí, puedes esperar la plenitud de vida que anhelas en las profundidades de tu alma. Puedes esperar tu propio cuarto en la casa de mi Padre, en el cielo; he ido a prepararlo para ti.

En la casa de mi Padre todos los dolores se convierten en alegría, toda debilidad se convierte en fuerza, y la vida crece más viva conforme se desarrolla la eternidad. Cristo es verdaderamente el agua viva que apaga toda sed. Él es verdaderamente la luz que dispersa todo tipo de oscuridad. La búsqueda de cada hombre y mujer para satisfacer las necesidades más profundas del corazón es la búsqueda de su rostro. Como escribió San Agustín ... Nuestros corazones están inquietos hasta que descansan en Dios. Y Jesucristo es Dios.

¡Atentamente suyo en Cristo

YOU DON'T NEED A MAP
TO GET TO HEAVEN;
JUST FOLLOW JESUS

Thomas said to Jesus, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?"
Jesus said to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life.
No one comes to the Father except through me." Jn 14:5-6

THE WAY

Today we sense the apostles' trepidation as they begin to realize that the Lord would soon be leaving them. In their fear, they ask, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" (John 14:5). Jesus tells them that he is the way. The Easter season has been a time of growing in Easter faith so that we, too, may learn to know that Jesus is the way. We can take comfort in the Lord's promise that he is going to his Father's house to prepare a place for us, his chosen people who have been called out of darkness into God's wonderful light. As the paschal candle continues to burn during this holy season, let us remember that in baptism we were given the light of Christ. With Christ our light as the beacon lighting our way, let us march toward the glory of Pentecost.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In many parish churches, more rarely in monastery churches and cathedrals, the tabernacle with the Blessed Sacrament is visible from a doorway or aisle in the church. Normally, a person is to give the proper sign of reverence, a genuflection, when passing in proximity to the tabernacle. The word "genuflect" comes from Latin roots meaning bending (or flexing) the knee. A common-sense exception to the rule is for a sacristan who is taking care of the church and can't be genuflecting every thirty seconds during a vacuum run. Also excepted are persons in procession entrusted with important symbols of the Lord's presence. So, a cross bearer or a minister carrying the Gospel book, or ministers on their way to their Communion stations do not genuflect. For everyone else, the usual sign of reverence for the Lord's presence in the Blessed Sacrament is to genuflect on the right knee.

The oldest form of reverence during prayer in our tradition is standing; kneeling or genuflecting is a sign borrowed from old civic practice. The posture of kneeling, even on one knee, is a sign of submission. Servants would take this position before their masters in the ancient world. It said: I'm not running away, I'm yours, I'm here for you. This is what your genuflection says when you enter a Catholic church where the place of reservation of the Blessed Sacrament is visible to you: I'm yours.

EL CAMINO

Hoy sentimos la perturbación de los apóstoles cuando empiezan a darse cuenta de que el Señor pronto los dejará. Temerosos preguntan: "Señor, no sabemos a dónde vas ¿cómo podemos saber el camino?" (Juan 14:5). Jesús les dice que él es el camino. El tiempo de Pascua ha sido un tiempo para crecer en la fe pascual para que, así también, nosotros podamos darnos cuenta de que Jesús es el camino. Nos consuela la promesa del Señor de que va a la casa de su Padre a preparar un lugar para nosotros, su pueblo elegido que ha sido llamado de las tinieblas a la luz admirable de Dios. Mientras el cirio pascual continúa ardiendo en este tiempo santo, recordemos que en nuestro bautismo nos dieron la luz de Cristo. Con Cristo, nuestra luz como faro iluminando nuestro camino, marchemos hacia la gloria de Pentecostés.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Después de la muerte de Jesús, los discípulos habían regresado a su antiguo oficio de la pesca para así ganarse la vida, pues no sabían qué hacer. El Jesús resucitado tuvo que pescárselos de nuevo. En su tercera aparición, Jesús pidió a los discípulos que lanzaran sus redes al mar. Estos sacaron 153 peces del mar, número representativo de todas las naciones del mundo. Esta pesca milagrosa que tuvo lugar en Galilea, nos recuerda otra pesca milagrosa hecha en Brasil. En 1716 tres pescadores pescaban en el Río Paraíba y al lanzar la red al agua sacaron una estatua de la Virgen de la Concepción. Después, la pesca fue tan abundante que por poco hundía el barco.

La virgencita de 36 centímetros había pasado muchos años en el agua por lo cual había tomado el rico color oscuro de muchos latinoamericanos. La devoción a Nuestra Señora de Aparecida creció hasta que la familia que la había encontrado la dio al pueblo para que en 1745 se construyera para ella una capilla pública. De esta manera, Aparecida pasó de las redes a los corazones, dando una rica pesca de personas para su Hijo.
