IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY SCHOOL

A Gift to the People of Wayne

Children spend most of their time in the classroom, and at IHM our class sizes allow personal attention by our caring teachers to help your child do better when they need help in a particular subject. Our classrooms are places to learn in and develop skills to help them lead and succeed. They are places where respect, teamwork and friendship grow and flourish. We wear uniforms because they show that school is a responsibility to be taken seriously. They keep the focus on learning, not on discussing fashion and comparing outfits. Students support each other through a unique buddy system where older students are paired with our younger students in a one-on-one mentoring relationship. Students love our buddy system!

IHM School is a K - 8 Catholic school serving Wayne Township and the surrounding communities, with a separate preschool, SMALL BLESSINGS, for three and four year olds offering flexible days and hours. For further information call 973-694-1225.

THE GREAT “O” ANTIPHONS OF ADVENT

Beginning December 17 and continuing through December 23, during the Evening Prayer, the antiphons before the Cantic of Mary (the Magnificat) are the ancient “O” Antiphons, sung so beautifully in Gregorian chant. These antiphons provide the most strikingly beautiful feature of these days before Christmas. Each of the antiphons calls for the coming of Christ by a different title, and sometimes multiple titles piled up in profusion.

“O Sapientia” (December 17) O Wisdom, O holy Word of God, you govern all creation with your strong yet tender care. Come and show your people the way to salvation.

“O Adonai” (December 18) Adonai is a sacred title of the ineffable name of God. It translates most commonly into “Lord” and proclaims the Incarnation. The God who redeemed Israel with an outstretched arm comes in human form.

“O Radix Jesse” (December 19) The root of Jesse that is prophesied in Isaiah 11.

“O Clavis David” (December 20) The one who holds the key of David opens and closes with absolute authority, as seen in Isaiah 22:22 and Revelation 3:7. We salute the Key of David, the personification of authority, and the one whose judgment we both fear and welcome.

“O Oriens” (December 21) Musically, the biggest ‘O’ of all the antiphons, it applies the image of the rising sun, the East, to the coming of the Savior. On the darkest day of the year (the winter solstice) it calls for the sun to shine with redemption.

“O Rex Gentium” (December 22) calls for the coming of the king of all nations and the cornerstone that binds together the “mighty arch” of humankind. Even though Jesus kept his focus on Israel throughout his ministry, his apostles took the message to the ends of the earth, to fulfill the prophecy that the messiah would unite the world’s peoples.

“O Emmanuel” (December 23) Not surprisingly, the O Antiphons conclude with the great title of Jesus, Emmanuel. It sums up the theme of Matthew’s gospel: Jesus appears by this title at the beginning and promises to be with his followers to the end. This, the last of the antiphons, is better known as the first verse of the traditional Advent hymn, ‘O Come, O Come Emmanuel’ that is based on the ancient O Antiphons.

SPIRITUAL REFLECTION

Gifts

I have a new watch, an inexpensive one.

The old one had worn out. This new one had something I like very much, a second hand. I can watch the seconds tick by and I can “time” anything I want to.

Who wants to time things?

Well I do, especially when I get caught by a traffic light that changes to red just as I pull within a half a block. I glance at my wrist to see just how long the light sits on red. Some of them last—listen to this—a minute and fifteen seconds!

Imagine having to sit with nothing to do when you are late and in a hurry, with a mechanical device deciding for an entire minute and a quarter the second when you are allowed to go on!

As you can see, I need to put on some patience.

The Second Reading for Sunday says it this way:

See the farmer await the yield of the soil.
He watches it in winter and in spring rain.*

The farmer is attentive and tolerant because crops do not come up in a day. He has learned patience through many seasons.

How about those of us who are not farmers? How do we “put on” patience?

I think there are two parts to the answer.

First, I have noticed that when I am being impatient I am also failing to notice what is happening in the present time. I am stuck in the future worrying about what will occur and how to make it happen; about where I am supposed to be by now; and how the light will not let me go.

And a lot of us reside in the past instead of the present. We re-hash mistakes we made and finally think of a retort that would have topped someone’s nasty remark, and so on.

The present moment is the only one we actually live in. The precious goodness of God makes everything exist right now, not tomorrow or yesterday, which are only memories or projections. We will miss the present by looking backward or forward too much.

Second, we need to recall that God makes the future safe. God has promised that, in ways we cannot understand, the crooked will be made straight. Our gnarled lives will be filled with goodness.

Patience is really a way of remembering the constant love of God, no matter how frightening or disconcerting the future may seem or may actually be. We need to slow down, look around, and live.

Think about Mary’s “be it done unto me,” her lifelong daily prayer, her nine months, her place at the cross. Notice that, when the angel gave her the annunciation, she did not demand guarantees and full details. She relied on God’s love. She waited.

And, the Second Person of the Trinity, alive to earth’s ways, waited until it was time to come into the world as Jesus. Then when he sensed that he was hungry, he suckled at his mother’s breast, burping only when the occasion presented itself, not before. And think of his years of being just a carpenter day after day. God’s beloved, making a chair!

But that is Advent.

Christ is with you. His presence needs to grow.

Just open. Watch for the signs.

Patience, people.

John Foley, SJ

* I wrote a Church song called “Patience, People,” that has these words of the farmer in it.
