MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

The loss of a loved one at any time of our lives always leaves us with an empty feeling that we call grief. There is never an easy time to lose someone we love. During this time of the year when the rest of the world is festive, joyful, and filled with the Christmas spirit, those who mourn are often left alone, lonely, and sometimes depressed.

In this time of Covid 19, we invite you and your family to join with others who are mourning a loved one at our Mass of Remembrance through the video Liturgy available on our website at 5:00 p.m. Saturday, December 19 through Sunday, December 20.

During Mass we will include a roll call of the names of our loved ones buried from Our Lady of the Valley and Holy Cross this past year as well as the names of those requested.

If you would like to have your loved one's name included in the roll call, please fill out the following form and drop it in the collection basket, the mail, or email Sister Dorothy directly at: Srdorothy@olvwayne.org or call (973) 694-4585 x7245. If leaving a voicemail, please leave your name and speak slowly and clearly the spelling of your loved ones names. Names must be submitted by December 16.

SPIRITUAL REFLECTION

A Long Time

Love always wants to share itself.

This is surely why God chose to create, God, who is love, making planets and black holes and galaxy clusters, and bestowing his very self upon every microscopic atom of the exhaustive creation he had made.

What a privilege for us, what a gift. Surely this would have been enough.

But planets and asteroids could not receive God actively. They could not decide to let God in and then willingly love God in return. Their reception was passive, a relishment of their rough, craggy existence, being exactly what they were (are) created to be, but no more.

So God thought up a miraculously intricate trail by which something called life could come about. He chose a diminutive blue planet circulating insignificantly around a small star in what some folks would call the Milky Way, millions of years later. It was a new beginning.

It was Life. Life eked its way out of the seas and onto shore. And then into trees, skies, rocky shores and more. It took as its home the highest mountains, the coldest high specks of space, the hottest flaming deserts, and even the deepest oceans. God loved this abundant "Life" in the way a mother loves her children.

If you could have taken one look at the dinosaurs and apes and fishes and birds, you would have seen that these miraculous creations would have been enough. They were alive. What a delight. And God enraptured them in love, a love in which they basked without knowing it.

So there was still more room. God's overflow of love sought out more space for being received.

A very interesting thing happened. God scooped out an openness in some living creatures so that they could actively receive the affectionate love that God was bestowing upon them, and now could return love to God.

As a result, the human race—slowly, cumbrously—doddered into being. Don't ask me the number of Cro-Magnon species that came to be, or how hunting turned into farming and cooking, how weaving and building and fences and fire came onto the scene. They did. And God took time to deepen within humans a spiritual hollow by which they could actually, even in fear and distraction, receive God's Glory. Not passively like a rock receives the sun, but actively and knowingly, welcoming unto themselves the gratuity of God's life, love and presence.

We are those human beings. Each of us is able to open up, wading at the apex of such a long history of God's love for us.

Advent is a treasured time to ask quietly, humbly, how we will love in return.

Will we take time to treasure the openness deep within? Will we let it thrive? It would mean bringing patience to bear on our nervous, ever worrisome life, letting God's presence be enough when we can. Presently, we are called to a way of patient listening and waiting instead of simply "going to church."

Would that be enough?

Not yet.

What if God's tender love wanted to make its way out of the church and into the world? Wouldn't it start (or continue) with the birth of the child Jesus? And wouldn't we carry such love, now within our hearts, out to the whole world?

John Foley, SJ
