Why do we do the things we do as Catholics?

Father Wells introduced many historical facts that have led to the formulation of the rite of the Mass as we celebrate the Liturgy today.

You are asked to summarize in a 2-page reflection paper how the Church has continued the tradition of Jesus and the Apostles into this current day. Your response should touch upon the following points but is not limited to these. Perhaps there was a concept that was extremely meaningful for you or that clarified something that you often wondered about that you are welcome to include as well.

The following should be developed in your essay:

- the ritual Jesus himself left us
- the meaning of the "breaking of the bread" and the "blessing cup"
- who were the early presiders of the Liturgy and where the rituals took place
- description of the "first" church buildings
