Thirtieth Week of Ordinary Time

A vision of comfort and healing is offered for the Thirtieth Sunday of Ordinary Time. In Jeremiah, we see the Lord gathering "his people" - the blind, the lame and the helpless innocents, bringing them together to console and guide them. In Mark's Gospel, Bartimaeus, the blind beggar has the courage to beg for healing from Jesus. He is hushed by the crowd but continues to call loudly for Jesus, who hears him and heals him. "Go your way; your faith has saved you."

Wednesday is the Feast of Saints Simon and Jude, Apostles.

The first reading all week continues with the third week of Paul's longest letter, the Letter to the Romans, with his teaching of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

The Gospel of Luke offers a glimpse of Jesus healing and teaching the people, even as he continues to clash with religious leaders. He cures the "bent woman" on a Sabbath and tells of the tiny mustard seed which develops to become a full grown bush. He repeats that it will not be easy to enter the Kingdom: "For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last." He defies those who bring word of threats on his life and defies the silent Pharisees who watch as he cures a man on the Sabbath. Jesus encourages us to be humble: "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

PSR News

The Junior High and High School youth began the year with a “Lock-in” on October 3 & 4. The theme was “God Strong” based on Ephesians 6:10-11. We discussed putting on the “Armor of God” and engaging in the spiritual battle that surrounds us. Father Hartge and Father Dooley joined us to offer Eucharistic Adoration and Confession. Thanks to all for prayers of support! Special thanks to Mike and Bonnie Hall, Marsha Arnold and Lana Elrich for their contributions of time

Women of St. Colman

The Women of St. Colman will meet on November 9 at 2pm in the Conference Room. Please bring a new or gently used towel(s) to donate to The Well.

Parish Office Updates

* New email address! We have a new email address for the Parish Office. Please begin using office@stcolmanwch.org instead of the Yahoo email address printed on the front of the bulletin. I will continue to periodically check the Yahoo mail until we have used all of the pre-printed bulletin covers with that email address.

*Notice to Church Organizations: I want to make sure all of our events and meetings are on the Church calendar which will also be included on the website. If you are responsible for scheduling meetings and/or events for your organization, please email office@stcolmanwch.org with your dates and times (both beginning and ending times) so that I can make sure they are correctly scheduled on our calendar.

*WANTED* Do you calligraphy? Or have decorative handwriting? We are in need of someone to print the names of the deceased in the All Souls Book to be displayed at mass the month of November. Please email me at office@stcolmanwch.org no later than Wednesday, October 28 if you are interested. This task needs to be completed by noon on Friday, October 30.

*WANTED* All materials, items and records belonging to the Church including those used to plan Parish events such as the Fair Booth. These would include items such as cemetery records, Fair Booth contacts and planning documents, library items you may have borrowed, kitchen items, etc. This will help as we begin to take an inventory of what we have for future planning. Please bring your items to the Parish Office by November 15 if possible. Thank you!

*New Phone System. You’ll notice a new voice mail message when you call the Parish Office. With the Auto Attendant, you’ll need to dial “0” for your call to ring into the Office.

*New Web Site! As Father has mentioned, we have a new web site address: www.stcolmanwch.org. It is still a work in progress but we will continue to build the site with Parish happenings and information. If you have material to include, please email me.
