What is your Spiritual Charism?

To follow up with the Spiritual Gifts Workshop in October 2015, we revisiting each of the Charisms presented. The next Charism is PASTORING. The Charism of Pastoring empowers a Christian to be an effective channel of God's love and build Christian community by nurturing the relationships and long-term spiritual growth of a group. An example of using this charism would be leading a group at church.

Antique Extravaganza SIGN UP

It is time to sign up to work the food booth at the Antique Extravaganza April 29-May 1 from 9am—6pm. Sign ups will be taken until April 16. If you cannot work the booth, please consider a monetary donation. (We do not need donated condiments for this event.)

Thank you to those of you who volunteered to bake cookies or brownies for this event. We decided to go in a different direction with the desserts, so we will not be asking you bake for this event.

From the Pastor's Desk

Happy Feast of Divine Mercy!

This is one of the newer devotions in the Church as well as one of the most popular. In 2000, Pope John Paul II declared the Second Sunday after Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday.

St. Faustina is the saint to whom this devotion was revealed. The Lord told her, "now is the time of mercy, after it will come the day of justice." We are accordingly encouraged to go to His Mercy now rather than meet his justice later. We are encouraged to adore Him in the Eucharist and venerate the Image of Divine Mercy, to be reconciled to Him through regular use of the Sacrament of Confession, and to pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. This takes on added significance in this the "Year of Mercy."

Also, remember that our Year of Mercy Parish Mission is coming up. Fr. Thomas Blau, O.P. will be preaching the Masses of April 23-24, and then will give the mission each evening, Sunday-Tuesday at 7:00 p.m.

Also, a reminder that I will be leaving for my backpacking Holy Land pilgrimage next Monday (4/11), please let me know of any intentions you would like me to carry.

In Christ,

Fr. Hahn
