The Diocesan Youth Conference. November 12th and 13th at St. Paul Parish, Westerville, features Steve Angrisano, an inspirational speaker and Christian music artist. This conference's theme is "Blessed Are the Merciful" and will be a wonderful capstone to this Jubilee Year of Mercy. Parents and families are invited to join us for a parent and family session at 2:00pm on Sunday afternoon and the closing Mass at 2:45pm in the beautiful St. Paul Church. Ask your parish Stephanie Robinson or Father Hartge for more registration information. Advanced registration is required. Cost is $70 for both days and includes lunches both days, dinner Saturday and a t-shirt. Registration forms are available at www.cdeducation.org/DCYC.

From the Parochial Vicar's Desk...

On this 15th anniversary of the September 11th terrorist attacks on the United States, we're reminded that we've been at war since the early 2000s with the invasion of Afghanistan and Iraq. Let us not forget to hold in prayer these men and women in the US Armed Forces as well as our allies. Let us pray for those civilians and families living in these war torn areas of the world. Let us pray for our world leaders that they be examples and models of the virtues of humility and courage in the way they lead.

Reflecting upon this long war we can be reminded that we're also in a constant spiritual battle. We often find ourselves in inner conflict. What is the right thing to do in this or that situation? What does God want me to do? Why can't life be simpler and clearer? How can I know I'm on the right path when there are so many to choose from? Then there are external conflicts. We find ourselves hurt by the words and actions of others. We're tempted toward sinful behaviors by material things and ideas around us. Additionally, there is evil in the world caused by fallen angels whose goal is to lead us away from the light of truth.

The Gospel this weekend reminds us that whether you or someone seems to be lost or experiencing some inner or external conflict, our heavenly Father is diligently searching for that precious soul. Let prayer, fasting and almsgiving be your weapons against these things and principalities that cause conflict and confusion where you seek peace and clarity. Trust that the Lord sees what you need and is always at your side.

May Mary, our Mother, watch over and protect our country and families.

In Christ Jesus,

Fr. Hartge
