From the Pastor's Desk...

Merry Christmas to all parishioners and visitors! Fr. Hartge, Fr. Dooley, and I feel blessed to be shepherding St. Colman's and the other parishes of our consortium for the second Christmas now. St. Colman's is a warm and active parish with a strong tradition of beautiful worship and community involvement. If you've been away for a while or this is your first time, we would love to have you with us in the future. Whether you are a parishioner or visitor, please take a gift from the parish with you as you leave today. The gift is a book called "Resisting Happiness" and is a book written to help readers become, in the author Matthew Kelly's words, "the best version of yourself." It helps us identify what are the areas of resistance preventing greater joy in our lives and how do we overcome those areas of resistance. In an insert in the book you will also find out about some ways to (re)connect with St. Colman parish and go deeper in your own relationship with the Lord and His Church in the coming months.

In Christ,

Fr. Hahn

Merry
Christmas
