From Father Hartge...

To my dear St. Colman Parish Family,
Thank you from the bottom of my heart for the very moving send-off at the parish picnic, and for the very generous monetary gift as I leave to begin this new assignment as pastor of the Perry County Consortium. Some priests have commented that they think I'm ready to be pastor, and then at the same time, acknowledge that I, in a sense, already had my first experience as pastor because they know what this arrangement has been with me at St. Colman. I'm grateful to Fr. Hahn for entrusting so much to me over these past three years here at St. Colman. His trust and confidence in me has, in turn, given me a lot of confidence to accept this big and challenging assignment ahead with great joy. As I said before, my heart will never be the same because of the love and acceptance you have showed me during my time here. May God bless you and reward you. I am sure you will welcome Fr. Herge as warmly as you did me. He is a good man, and will be a fine priest. I'm certain he will be eager to get to know you all.

Some have asked where I'll be living, and for my new address. I'll live at the rectory at St. Rose of Lima in New Lexington:

309 N. Main St.
New Lexington, OH 43764

I will miss you all, and I am certain our paths will cross again.

Very fondly and in Christ Jesus,
Fr. Hartge

Fair Booth Time!

Our fair booth at the Fayette County Fair is the largest fundraiser we have for St. Colman Parish raising nearly $7500 each year! However, it takes a lot of volunteers to make this happen. Please consider donating some time to work the booth from July 16-July 21. The sign-up poster is in the back of church. To help defray the cost of the admission fee, pay attention to the day seniors get in free (Tuesday) or the day veterans get in free (Thursday). We have a limited number of fair passes that will be distributed on a first-come, first-served basis by Tina in the Parish Office.

Again this year, we are asking for monetary donations instead of material donations and condiments. You'll find a giving envelope in your packet for the weekend of July 8, or you can put your contribution in a separate envelope marked "Fair Booth". Please do not combine your weekly contribution with your fair contribution. These are TWO SEPARATE BANK ACCOUNTS. The funds cannot be deposited together in the same account.

A HUGE thank you to the fair booth committee: Dan & Bobbie Stahl, Jerry & Jeanette Morris, Jim & Sandy Wilson, Jeff & Bridget Sollars, Mary Smith, Sue Burnside, Sue Smith, Marsha Arnold and Tina Garland.

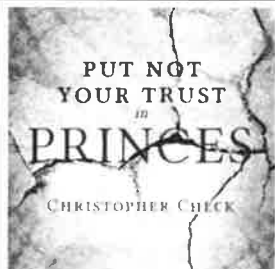

See you at the fair!!!

Natural Family Planning Awareness Week: July 22-28, 2018

Where were you in 1968?

That was the year that Blessed Pope John Paul VI wrote Humanae Vitae (On Human Life) as an affirmation of the Catholic Church's beautiful teaching on married love and responsible parenthood. Many people think they know what the document says, but few have actually read it. Celebrate Humanae Vitae's 50th anniversary by reading the original encyclical, viewing videos of couples' HV stories, or recording your own HV story at <https://>

FORMED

THE CATHOLIC FAITH,
ON DEMAND.

Speaking from his perspective as a historian, Christopher Check reminds us that the crisis of our age is cultural and, in the end, spiritual. He explains that a flourishing society is not achieved through legislation or at the ballot box, but instead radiates from the family out. Using examples from the ages, he connects us with our rich patrimony as Catholics and provides practical advice on what we must do to transform our culture for Christ.

Good-bye Fr. Hartge

It is with sadness and joy mixed that we say good-bye to Fr. Hartge this week. Fr. Hartge has been a wonderful addition to our consortium and a joy in rectory life. We will sorely miss him. Our prayers go with him!

Welcoming Fr. Herge

This week, we'll be welcoming Fr. Thomas Herge to our consortium. I guess the Bishop wanted to make it easy on us with names – even if you slip up and call him Fr. Hartge, it sounds close enough that he might not catch it. Fr. Herge was just ordained with the same class as Fr. Brett Garland. Fr. Herge grew up in Alabama and then studied and graduated from The Ohio State University before entering the Pontifical College Josephinum Seminary. Fr. Dooley and I are looking forward to his arrival this week. He'll then be making his way around the consortium through the weekend schedules.

Year of the Family

Beginning July 8, our deanery (the unit comprising the southern parishes of the diocese) is celebrating a "Year of the Family." This year is the 160th anniversary of the marriage of Blessed Louis and Zelig Martin (better known as the parents of St. Therese of Lisieux, "the Little Flower"). Their shrine in Alencon, France is hosting a Jubilee for Family this year also.

We hope to have some initiatives to help strengthen family life this year and are looking at the possibility of a Deanery "Year of the Family Conference" in the Spring. One initiative you'll notice beginning with this week's bulletin is a weekly bulletin article about concrete and practical ways to live the life of the Church in the home.

Your Family's Cycle

Every family has a cycle of life – for example, for many families, we're in the midst of baseball and softball season. Every year, beginning around the same time, certain routines begin (preparing equipment, practicing, etc., progressing to games, and concluding with tournaments) It affects the life of the whole family and even at times, in a good year, brings ample times to celebrate; then the going back to school routine, again roughly the same time of each year with all of its attendant preparations and "celebrations." (can I hear some parents' Amen?) On top of this calendar that is seasonal you also have a calendar that is specific to dates. The family celebrates the birthday of each member on their specific date, there is a celebration of the wedding anniversary on its specific date, etc. We can say there is a season-based calendar you follow and a specific-date calendar.

Your Church Family's Cycle

Your Church family is no different. There is a seasonal-based calendar (Advent, Christmas Season, Ordinary Time, Lent, Easter Season, etc.) and a specific-to-the-date calendar – the Feast of Ss. Peter and Paul, June 29 every year; St. Benedict, July 11; Assumption of Mary, Aug. 15; St. Francis of Assisi, Oct. 4, and so on.

What for centuries on end has helped make Catholicism so enjoyable is the living out of these seasons together as a family. Just as celebrating wins together as a family or everyone getting involved in the back to school preparations, or everyone sharing a birthday dinner bring joy and build love, so does the living out of our beautiful calendar of Catholic Life. It's good to tap into our family that spans twenty centuries and every continent – to keep the festivals that they did and do, to share the joys of the feast days, to help create in our own families the sense of belonging to a community much larger than the present age and the present place. All the while we keep before our eyes many of the "all-stars" of our family. For example, this week's article is about celebrating the feast day of St. Benedict (July 11), the founder of Western Monasticism, and thus a key figure to the building of Western Civilization itself.

You'll read about a fun and easy way to mark this celebration by making a Benedictine Pizza for dinner. You will also read a prayer to go with the day, as well as be pointed to other resources to go deeper. The Catholic Church didn't give rise to Western Civilization simply through its presentation of Truth, living of Goodness, creation of Beauty, or establishing Unity, although those were all important, it was also through giving rise to a culture that CELEBRATED all that was True, Good, Beautiful, and Unifying. We need to teach ourselves and our children that the Faith is to not only to be lived, but to be joyfully celebrated – this has been the genius of Catholicism. As Hillaire Belloc once put it, "Wherever the Catholic sun doth shine, There's always laughter and good red wine. At least I've always found it so. Benedicamus Domino!"

We hope this weekly installment will help families find more ways to live a life of Faith that will one day have their children remembering and appreciating the beauty of Jesus and our Faith not only for all of its truth, goodness, unity, and beauty – but also its Joy!

In Christ,
Fr. Hahn

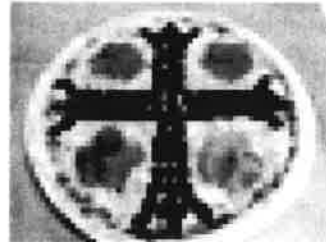

Living the Liturgical Year
Celebrating Saints and Feasts to Enrich Hearts and Homes

July 11: St. Benedict of Nursia (480-543) - patron of Europe and students

This Father of Western Monasticism was known for his many miracles, building the abbey of Monte Cassino and his writing of The Rule, which became the foundation of monastic life in Europe. The Rule of St. Benedict can also serve family life to help form it as a Christian "community". You can read it free online here: <http://www.osb.org/rb/text/toc.html>

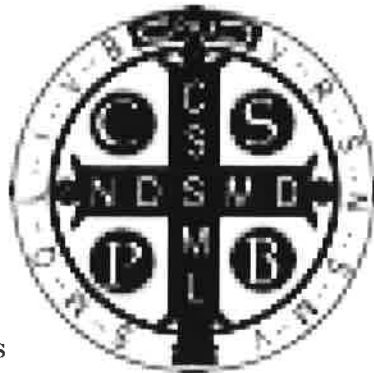

RECIPE: A Little "Pizza Italy" With St. Benedict (from catholiccuisine.com)

Since St. Benedict was born in Italy, we thought we'd bring a little "pizza Italy" into our hometoday. The Medal of St. Benedict is one of the Sacramentals of the Church.

Ingredients:

- Take-and-bake cheese pizza
- 1 can medium olives
- 20 pepperoni slices

Instructions: Prior to baking, slice olives in half (length-wise) and arrange in shape of the Benedictine cross. Place pepperonis in the 4 corners (5 in each corner) to mimic the circles on the back of the St. Benedict medal.

These 4 large circles hold the letters C S P B standing for the Crux Sancti Patris Benedicti (The Cross of the Holy Father Benedict). Bake and enjoy!

+St. Benedict ~ Pray for us!+

St. Benedict Medals and Holy Cards are available at the back of the church.

A Prayer to Saint Benedict for Protection

Dear Saint Benedict, I thank God for showering you with His grace to love Him above all else and to establish a monastic rule that has helped so many of His children live full and holy lives.

Through the cross of Jesus Christ, I ask you to please intercede that God might protect me, my loved ones, my home, property, possessions, and workplace today and always by your holy blessing, that we may never be separated from Jesus, Mary, and the company of all the blessed. Through your intercession may we be delivered from temptation, spiritual oppression, physical ills, and disease. Protect us from drug and alcohol abuse, impurity and immorality, objectionable companions, and negative attitudes. In Jesus' Name. Amen.

Holy Land Carvers Returning to St. Colman, July 14 & 15 in the Parish Center

We are proud to introduce ourselves as the Holy Land Carvings group from the Holy Land. We have come to the United States representing the Christian wood carvers of Bethlehem that rely on the tourism to support their families.

Due to the bad situation and the interruption of the tourist trade, thousands of families in the Holy Land are in danger of having to leave their homes in search of work. Our mission is to bring and sell the Olive Wood Carvings to the Catholic Churches in the United States to help the Christian families remain in their homes and support their families. These Christians who make their livelihood through the selling of their hand carved Olive Wood religious items, are depending on us to bring these beautiful carving, such as Nativity Scenes, Crucifixes, Rosaries, Statues, Picture of the Last Supper, and several other religious items to you.

Please look over these carvings that are available to you at the weekend of July 14th & 15th and help support this self-help project that enables to keep the Christians present in the Holy Land. Your help and understanding in this crucial matter is greatly appreciated.
