Thank you to all who purchased mums! We raised approximately $250 for the youth program. Watch for Christmas wreaths and flowers coming next! Order forms should be in next week's bulletin.

Memorial Tree for a Loved One Planted in the Cemetery

The St. Colman Cemetery Board is accepting memorial contributions in memory of a loved one as they begin to replace trees along the front of the cemetery. Each memorial is $200. This includes the cost of the tree as well as the plaque that will be placed at the base of your tree. The Board will select the trees, plant and care for them.

Complete a "Tree Memorial Form" from the back of church along with your $200 check made payable to St. Colman Catholic Church. Please do not include this on your weekly offertory check as they are two separate bank accounts. Return your form and payment in a separate envelope marked "Tree Memorial" and drop it in the collection basket.

The trees will be planted and plaques installed this fall. Please contact Tina in the Parish Office or one of the Cemetery Board members if you have questions. Board members include: Phil Evans, president, Jim Garland, vice-president, Jill Adams, John Boylan, Ron Burkhard, Jim Paisley, Vicki Ream and Ann Winkle.

Preferred deadline is October 1.

PICK OF THE WEEK, September 16

Speaker and author Kimberly Hahn, wife of Dr. Scott Hahn and mother of six, is a convert to the Catholic Faith. Although honoring Mary was difficult for her to understand initially, she began to encounter Mary's loving guidance in little ways on a daily basis. In this presentation, Kimberly reflects on the joys and sorrows that Mary prayerfully experienced during her time on earth, and shares how her example leads us closer to Christ. Find this and more on the formed website. Access Code VZ4F2W or download the free app for your phone!

The Lantern: Stewardship Report was mailed to all registered parish families this past week. This is our year-end financial report provided by the Finance and Parish Councils. Not registered to receive one? You can register online at www.stcolmanwch.org or in the Parish Office.

September 21: St. Matthew, Apostle and Evangelist, patron of accountants, bankers and bookkeepers

St. Matthew was a tax collector. Jewish tax collectors were shameless crooks who committed the twofold crime of collaborating with heathens and preying upon their own people. "Follow me," Christ said. To the surprise of the Roman guards, the clerks and the taxpayers, Matthew got up, left the money where it lay on the table, turned his back on a life of government-sanctioned thievery, and joined the handful of men we know as the Twelve Apostles. (Craughwell, T. (2017, September 21). Today We Celebrate St. Matthew. Retrieved from <http://ncregister.com>) What an amazing conversion! St. Matthew became an Apostle of the Lord, the author of the gospel that bears his name and ultimately gave his life in witness to his faith in the Lord. Read more about St. Matthew at st-matthew-apostle-601.

In honor of this patron of bankers, let's make some homemade "PayDay" bars.

RECIPE: St. Matthew "PayDay" bars (from catholiccuisine.com)

Ingredients:

- 1 16 oz. jar dry roasted peanuts
- 1 can sweetened condensed milk
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 2 cups miniature marshmallows
- 1 (10 oz) bag peanut butter chips

Directions:

Grease the bottom and sides of a 9x13 pan. Pour half of the peanuts into the pan. Over medium low heat, melt butter and chips. Remove from heat and mix in sweetened condensed milk. Stir in marshmallows, do not melt marshmallows. Spoon mixture over peanuts in pan, pat down. Top with remaining peanuts and press down to help adhere the top layer of peanuts. Chill until set.

Earn your "PayDay" bar by naming all twelve of the Apostles!!

Another idea, in honor of St. Matthew, is to consider doing something for the needy. Our own St. Vincent de Paul Society is a great place to start!

A Prayer to God, Help Us to Follow St. Matthew's Example

We thank thee, heavenly Father, for the witness of thine Apostle and evangelist Matthew to the Gospel of thy Son our Savior; and we pray that, after his example, we may with ready wills and hearts obey the calling of our Lord to follow him; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever, Amen.

Timely Tips for Tots at Mass:

-Do sit up front. Little ones can be amazingly attentive at Mass....but they like to see what is happening, not just the backs of others.

-If possible, hold them in your arms until they are 3 years. By then they have learned Mass is a time to be still and to stay in the pew and they have likely learned some responses by being held so close.

-If they get loud or disruptive while holding, take them to the vestibule or "quieting room" and hold them there until they settle. Yes, sometimes this is the whole of Mass! But with no visuals and no running about, they usually find the pew a better option! Your efforts will help them grow to love the Lord and the Holy Mass!

September 14: Exultation of the Holy Cross

This feast commemorates the recovery of the Holy Cross of Christ (originally found in the Holy Land by St. Helena) from the Persians and its return to Jerusalem by Emperor Heraclius in the 7th century. Legend has it that the Emperor (in all his fine robes and jewels) could not advance into Jerusalem with the Cross until he humbled himself, put on penitential clothes and proceeded as a barefoot pilgrim. This Feast is a twofold reminder that: 1) we, as followers of Christ Crucified, must also take up our crosses daily and 2) Jesus triumphed over death and draws us to himself (see John 12:32). Our L

It is said that the hill where St. Helen found the cross was covered with sweet basil. That makes this easy meatless recipe perfect for this feast.

RECIPE: Basil Pesto Pasta with Tomatoes (serves 4-6)

Ingredients:

- 1 6 oz jar of pesto
- 1 16 oz box pasta of choice
- 2 cups cherry tomatoes, halved
- 1/c cup grated parmesan cheese
- salt and pepper to taste

Directions:

Cook pasta according to package directions, drain and return to pot. Gently stir in pesto. Place pasta on serving dishes and garnish with fresh tomatoes and grated parmesan. Serve with a loaf of crusty bread.
