From the Desk of Fr. Dooley...

Happy Advent to all of you! I'm happy to officially begin my time here at St. Colman's as your Parochial Vicar Administrator. As Fr. Hahn mentioned earlier, I am the primary administrative and pastoral contact for St. Colman Parish. Moreover, I will still be the Parochial Vicar Administrator for St.

Sylvester Parish in Zaleski. As you know, most of my previous time in the Consortium was spent at St.

Mary's in Waverly. I ask for your patience as I learn the 'ropes' here in the parish. I must also add that I am very bad with names! My prayer is that I will be attentive to the Holy Spirit and strive to become a servant leader for St. Colman Parish.

Anyway, let's get down to business....we have put away the green from the Ordinary Time season and now, we have our Advent wreath out in full display. When I was a little boy, seeing the candles get lit brought me excitement for the countdown of Christmas! As I got older, the season of Advent became more than just a countdown, but one of preparation and reflection. This time of the year allows us to start anew in our spiritual lives. How do we welcome Christ in our daily lives?

Here are some words from Fr. Jean Danielou, S.J. (d. 1974), on this overlooked liturgical season: "The whole mystery of the spiritual life lies in the continual birth of Jesus within us. To be a Christian means to be gradually changed into Christ so as to be truly children of the Father.

Similarly in regard to humankind as a whole, Jesus has not yet fully come. He has come to some peoples, but not to all. In some parts of the human race, Jesus is still unborn. The mystical Christ is not yet complete; he is still imperfect, lacking members. Therefore the Church's missionary prayer is for the coming of Christ to the whole world, so that his body may attain its full stature."

May this Advent Season be one of preparation and joy for you!

In Christ,
Fr. Dooley

Living the Liturgical Year

Celebrating Saints and Feasts to Enrich Hearts and Homes

December 6: St. Nicholas, Bishop and patron of bakers, boatman and brewers and much more...

St. Nicholas is one of the most popular saints in the Western world though relatively little is actually known about him. He was born in Asia Minor (modern-day Turkey) and became bishop of Myrna in Lycia after the death of his Uncle, the archbishop. Many miracles and legends surround this saint of charity. Check out <http://www.stnicholascenter.org/pages/who-is-st-nicholas/> to find out more about him as well as many fun ways to celebrate his feast day with stories, crafts and recipes!

We decided to make some St. Nicholas cocoa mix to try and to give away either for the Feast of St. Nicholas or even for Christmas!

RECIPE: St. Nicholas Cocoa Mix (from catholiccuisine.com)

8 cups powdered milk

1 (16 ounce) package instant cocoa

1 1/2 cups powdered sugar

2 1/2 cups powdered non-dairy creamer

4 cups miniature marshmallows

6-8 ounces finely crushed peppermint candy

5 quart jars with lids

red and white striped ribbon (optional)

Note: this recipe makes enough mix for 5 quart jars so reduce accordingly if you want less.

Combine powdered milk, cocoa, powdered sugar, creamer, marshmallows and peppermint candy; mix well. Store in airtight container or fill 5 glass quart jars and tie with ribbon and a tag with the following:

For each serving, put 1/2 cup mix in an 8 oz. mug, fill with boiling water and mix well. Add a candy cane to stir if desired. Enjoy!!
