From the Desk of Fr. Dooley...

A blessed Fourth Sunday of Lent to you! We also say that this is 'Laetare Sunday' meaning: Rejoice. This comes to us from the opening verse (Introit) of the Sunday liturgy: "Rejoice Jerusalem." In the liturgical calendar, this day is meant to serve as a relaxation from the normal Lenten disciplines. The day of Easter will be here before we know it.

In the Gospel from John (Optional Year A: Readings for RCIA), we hear of the man born blind who experiences the healing of his sight and in return, receives the gift of faith in Jesus Christ. However, the crowds constantly berate this man who was healed by Christ. They try to discredit his healing and even his entire personhood. They go far by saying: "You were born totally into sin, and you are trying to teach us?" Talk about hubris. Instead of rejoicing that this man is healed, they attack this poor guy. In the end, Jesus tells the critics: I came to bring freedom from sins. In Lent, we rejoice that Christ has freed and healed us, if we are open to it. We rejoice that no one can take away our joy in Jesus Christ.

A few things for you:

- ◆ Please pray for Bishop Robert Brennan as he begins his ministry in the Diocese of Columbus!
- ◆ Pray for the victims of violence (New Zealand, Nigeria, Syria, Israel/Palestine).
- ◆ Many people affected by bad weather- pray for those displaced (flooding in Nebraska, earthquakes in China, and cyclones in Australia).
- ◆ Please pray for our catechumens and candidates who are entering into the Catholic Church in these next few weeks.
- ◆ Please see our Holy Week schedule in the bulletin- make it a priority as you plan ahead.
- ◆ The Laetare Sunday Evening Prayer (Vespers) Service is on Sunday, March 31st at 3:00pm. Please join us for this beautiful liturgical service! You will not be disappointed. Special thanks to Craig Jaynes, the Choir of St. Colman, and guest musicians for their work and dedication.

Have a great week!

Fr. Dooley

Lenten Offering Boxes

As we are now over midway through Lent, just a reminder about the offering boxes you may have taken home at the beginning of Lent (if not you can still pick one up in the back): 50% of this will stay with the St. Vincent DePaul Society and go to help those in need in our community, 50% will go to support the foster care program through Miryante Orphanage. This is the orphanage that we help support and that we do mission trips to every or every other year. They are trying to provide floors, windows and doors in the homes of those whom they have invited to take children into. Things we take for granted as very basic to a home, they see as valuable additions. I encourage you to direct some of your almsgiving this Lent to these two projects through the offering boxes. You will then have the opportunity to bring those boxes back on Holy Thursday or Easter Sunday. Thank you!

Weade Lot Sidewalk Upgrade: Thank you to the nephews of Ginger Weade (Jess, Branen, Mark and Matt Weade) for replacing the sidewalk along the Weade parking lot they graciously allow St. Colman parishioners to use. A marker was also placed in memory of Ginger.. When the weather dries out a little, they will be filling in the area between curb and sidewalk and along the sidewalk.

Lenten Reflections on Mercy and Forgiveness

Week 4

READINGS: Joshua 5:9a, 10–12; 2 Corinthians 5:17–21; Luke 15:1–3, 11–32

“Your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found”
(Lk 15:32).

We are all prodigal children

In today's Gospel, we hear the parable of the prodigal son. This young man toiled in the business of his father, left his comfortable home, and began seeking to fulfill his worldly desires for women, excessive drinking, and other pleasures. When he ran out of money, he came to understand the error of his ways and returned home hoping to take the form of a slave since he had dishonored his father. Little did he know that, upon making this request, his father would have mercy upon him, forgive him for his poor decision, and welcome him into his rightful home. There he worked happily alongside his father in humble admiration for the rest of his days.

Such is the will and pleasure of our heavenly Father, who receives us again and again when we come to him asking for forgiveness. We are all prodigal children and undeserving to be called God's sons and daughters. Yet, that is what we are.

May we imitate the prodigal son of Jesus' parable and return to our Father every time we find ourselves in sin so that we can receive his mercy. Then, we too can work happily alongside Our Lord in humble admiration. Through spiritual endurance in seeking forgiveness we draw closer to Our Lord and discover that we have no reason to ever leave his side.

For Reflection

- › How is your life like that of the prodigal son?
- › Are you as willing to forgive others as the prodigal son's father was to forgive him?
- › What does it mean to have spiritual endurance?

“To live is to change, and to be perfect is to have changed often.”

— BLESSED JOHN HENRY NEWMAN

Faith Lesson

God can defeat sin and helps us fight temptation

Theodore Roosevelt was once quoted as saying, “Nothing in the world is worth having or worth doing unless it means effort, pain, difficulty.” We see this quote manifested every time we see a sports star hoisting a championship trophy above his head; or, much more appropriately, a missionary washing the hands of the poor children she serves breakfast to; or the mother of young children resting her head on a pillow after a long day of care-giving.

Indeed, the satisfaction of these individuals during these moments is intense, but so is their pain, their tiredness, and their willingness to continue the work the next day.

Such is the way of the determined soul. If those who endure to the end receive prizes in this world, should it not be so for our spirits, too?

Our souls were designed to endure the greatest of all trials — that of sin and its power over us. For humans it is impossible to defeat sin, but with God's grace we are given the ability to endure temptations and overcome them.

St. Peter tells us, “Although now for a little while you may have to suffer through various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold that is perishable even though tested by fire, may prove to be for praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ” (1 Pt 1:6–7).

So, go. Endure your spiritual trials so that you can win the “unfading crown of glory” (1 Pt 5:4) that awaits you.

Jesus, my savior, you endured the hate of your own people, the suffering in the garden, the scourging at the pillar, the crowning of thorns, the carrying of the cross, crucifixion, and death. Allow me to endure all of life's difficulties, small or grave, and unite them with your merciful passion. In doing so, may I be made worthy of the promise of your resurrection.

Working constantly to serve

Margaret of Hungary knew how to endure the difficulties of living a truly Catholic lifestyle. She was born a princess, the daughter of the king of Hungary. She was blessed with all the comforts that come with royalty, but in her zeal for souls she felt called to do more with her life. She joined a convent and became a poor nun working constantly to serve the needs of the poor and sick of her kingdom. She fasted continuously and served tirelessly; she was called to the heavenly kingdom at the tender age of 29. Having spent every last ounce of her earthly energy toward doing God's will, she took her eternal crown of royalty as the princess of the one, true King of all creation.

Fasting TIPS

To have spiritual endurance means to get back up again even after you have failed. If you have failed in your fasting at any time during this Lenten season, that is okay. Don't beat yourself up about it. Rather, get back up again, dust yourself off, and proceed with renewed promise.
