CONCERTS IN A COUNTRY CHURCH SEASON SIX – NUMBER TWO

“Playing with the Big Boys, Part Two”

WHAT: The second concert of the 2018-19 season of Concerts in a Country Church, the concert series presented by St. Colman Catholic Church.

WHEN: Sunday, April 28, 2019 at 3:00 PM

WHERE: St. Colman Catholic Church

WHO: Craig Jaynes, organist (with a surprise guest artist)

HOW: Tickets are $10 at the door, which opens at 2:30 PM.

DETAILS: The concert series was begun six years ago, following the installation of a new, concert-capable organ at the church and this program will be the 17th program to be presented as part of the series. It will feature the church's Music Director in a solo program of organ works by major composers and others who, in some way, qualify as 'Big Boys': Bach, Handel, Franck, Vierne, etc.

Part One was given in the spring of 2018, and was received so warmly that it was decided to continue the format for this year. Mr. Jaynes is known for interspersing larger, major works, with lighter and more familiar pieces in order to provide a program of great variety and interest. Previous concerts have included choir, woodwind ensemble, string orchestra, brass quintet, percussion, and chamber orchestra along with a variety of soloists.

This will be the second solo program in the series performed by Mr. Jaynes, who has been the Music Director at St. Colman since 2005. He was born in California and raised in central Kansas where he started as a church organist in 1963. He attended Wichita State University, Kent State University, The Ohio State University and Clark State Community College and studied organ privately with Paul Lundquist, Dorothy Addy, Diane Bish and Virgil Fox. Mr. Jaynes recently retired as a hospice and palliative care nurse and tends Ashdowne at English Garden Farm, his large ornamental garden outside of Jamestown, Ohio.

From the Desk of Fr. Dooley...

Happy Easter to all of you! May the Resurrection of the Lord bring you a renewed sense of hope and joy. Special thanks to all of our liturgical ministers and to all those who helped decorate for our liturgies during Holy Week. Furthermore, a big thank you goes to: Tina Garland, Stephanie Robinson, Craig Jaynes and the St. Colman Choir, Dave Kearney, and Paul Ondrus.

We also welcome those who entered into the Catholic Church this weekend: Chris Van Meter, Mary Ann Van Meter, Chapman Fluent, and Susan Wollscheid. They have been a part of our community for awhile, but today we can officially say: Welcome to St. Colman Parish!

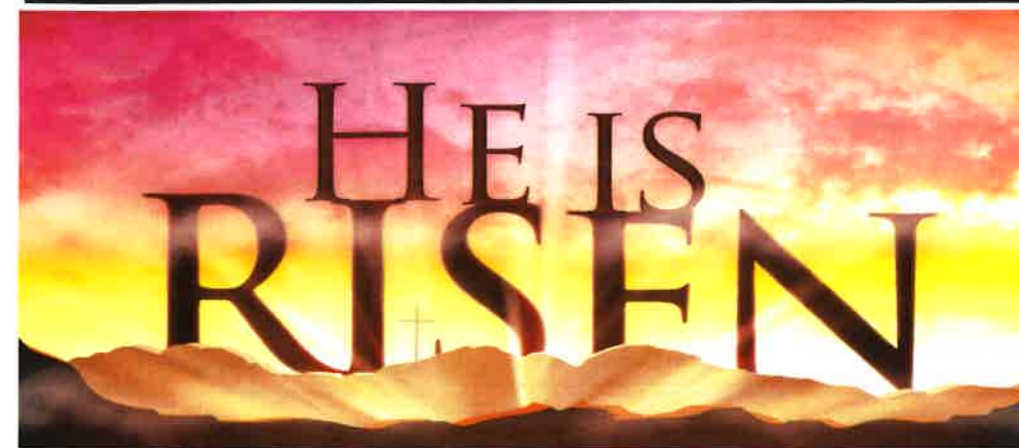

We read in the Gospel for Easter morning of Mary Magdalene telling the disciples that the tomb is empty. Then, the text continues with "Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster..." The closest followers of Jesus wanted to see if the promises of Jesus would actually be fulfilled. I often imagine that scene of those two disciples who are running toward the tomb. For them, this is their resurrection as well. They allowed room in their hearts for that hope and fulfillment. How has the Resurrected Lord played a role in my life? What does resurrection mean for me? Let us keep those questions in the forefront during the Easter Season.

Speaking of Easter, we have now entered into the Octave of Easter. The Octave will conclude on the Second Sunday of Easter or also called: Divine Mercy Sunday, which is on Sunday, April 28th. This is a devotion which was started by the revelations received by St. Faustina in Poland. Fr. Hahn will lead the Divine Mercy Chaplet in the Church after the 8:30am Mass on Sunday, April 28th.

Happy Easter!
Fr. Dooley

On behalf of Fr. Hahn, Fr. Dooley, Fr. Thomas, Deacon Hauser, and the Staff of St. Colman, we pray that you and your family have a blessed Easter Season!
