Homebound Ministers Needed

Homebound Ministers are need to take Communion to our parish family members on Sunday mornings who are not able to come to Mass. It takes about an hour or less. Depending on how many ministers we can add to the team, you would be scheduled about once a month.

This is a wonderful ministry, fulfilled "behind the scenes", but very important to and appreciated by those who cannot attend Mass. Can you imagine not being able to walk in the doors of our church to hear the word of God or receive Christ in the Eucharist? You would probably be grateful when someone brought Communion to you.

Contact Fr. Dooley or Helen McHolan if you would like to learn more. Contact Tina in the Parish Office if you would like to join the team.

In Christ,
Fr. Dooley
