From the Pastor's Desk...

We have now concluded the "Year of the Family." I hope you enjoyed the "YEAR OF THE FAMILY: Celebrating Saints and Feasts to Enrich Hearts and Homes" inserts over the past year. A big thanks to the Chris and Chantalle Noel Family (St. Peter parishioners) for creating these for each week. The brief lessons and recipes to help celebrate the saints and feasts enriched our celebration of the family of the Church over the year. I have heard of some parishioners saving these each week and putting them into a permanent binder to help more fully celebrate the beautiful cycle of saints and feasts in the Catholic calendar. I also want to thank the Noel family for showing us the stark beauty of what family life can look like in the shadow of the Cross. About midway through this "Year of the Family," Chantalle was diagnosed with a serious illness that has had a profound effect upon her and the life of the family. Together they've helped each other along the way. I told them that they didn't have to continue creating these inserts knowing that their time and energy were greatly taxed from all of the hospital trips and treatments and caring for seven children but they insisted on bringing the year to completion. The lessons from the inserts on holiness and celebrating were great, but they compare little to the lessons that their family itself has taught us during this year. We remain united in prayer as the great family of the Church.

In Christ,
Fr. Hahn

Fair Booth Time!

Our fair booth at the Fayette County Fair is the largest fundraiser we have for St. Colman Parish. However, it takes a lot of volunteers to make this happen. Please consider donating some time to work the booth from July 15-July 20. The sign-up poster is in the back of church. To help defray the cost of the admission fee, pay attention to the day seniors get in free (Tuesday) or the day veterans get in free (Thursday). Day Captains are still needed for two days. Contact Dan Stahl 740.335.7901 or Tina Garland in the Parish Office if you can serve in this capacity.

YEAR OF THE FAMILY

Celebrating Saints and Feasts to Enrich Hearts and Homes

Week Of June 23rd – June 29th

Saints Peter and Paul

June 29th – This is the day the Catholic Church celebrates the Martyrdom in Rome of the Apostles Peter and Paul. The celebration is of ancient origin, the date selected being the anniversary of either their death or the translation of their relics. In recent decades, this feast, along with that of Saint Andrew, has been of importance to the modern ecumenical movement as an occasion on which the Pope and the Patriarch of Constantinople have officiated at services designed to bring their two churches closer to intercommunion. This was especially the case during the pontificate of St Pope John Paul II, as reflected in his encyclical Ut Unum Sint. Saint Augustine's homily for this solemnity is included in the Liturgy of the Hours on this feast day and concludes with these words of encouragement:

"Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one; and even though they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles' blood. Let us embrace what they believed, their life, their labors, their sufferings, their preaching and their confession of faith." There is much that could be said about two of the greatest "characters" of our faith which should inspire all of us to delve into the details of their lives through reading and reflection (consider starting with the homily suggested below and let your interest grow from there.) For it is by studying the lives of the Saints that we will learn to live like them; in this life and the next.

FEASTING WITH THE SAINTS

Saints Peter and Paul Avocado Soup

(Adapted from The Monastery Garden Cookbook)

Ingredients:

- 3 leeks, white parts only, trimmed and sliced
- 3 avocados, peeled and sliced in half
- 3 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 (8-ounce) container sour cream
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- salt and pepper to taste

lemon rind as garnish.

Directions:

Place the leeks in a saucepan, cover with 6 cups of water, and bring to a boil. Lower the heat to medium-low and cook leeks for 15-20 minutes. Remove pan from heat, allow to cool slightly, and then whirl leeks and water in a blender or food processor. Pour the mixture back into the pan or a large bowl. Place the avocados, lemon juice, sour cream paprika, and salt and pepper in the blender or food processor and blend for about 1 minute. Add to the leek mixture and blend all the ingredients well by hand. Place in the refrigerator for at least 2 hours before serving. Serve cold and add some lemon rind on the top of each serving as garnish. (Serves 4-6.) Great on a hot summer day!
