From the Parochial Vicar's Desk...

The Lord's peace! As we celebrated the holy day of obligation, "The Feast of the Assumption", we are reminded once again of the importance of the Blessed Mother in each of our Lives. May our Mother Mary wrap her mantle of protection around our Parish family here at St Colman of Cloyne.

As I reflect on my first month in the consortium, I am overwhelmed with the warm welcome reception that I have received at St. Colman's. Many thanks for making my transition from Columbus so great. You all demonstrated an important aspect of our faith, the spirit of gratitude as well as selfless service, which you all reflected in my new parish.

Two things for us to consider as our summer comes to an end soon. First, I pray that you all have been able to enjoy, relax and be refreshed as we now head into the start of a new school year. Please remember to keep in your prayers all the school children as well as faculty and staff.

Secondly, it's now time to start preparing for our Oktoberfest. So many great things for the month of October as we also celebrate the Blessed Mother and our famous Oktoberfest. I look forward to experiencing these things with you all for the first time. Through the intercession of St. Colman of Cloyne, may we continue to grow in holiness through our mother Mary.

God Bless,
Fr. Tim

Library Notes

The Ultimate Life of St. Therese Portrayed by Those Who Knew Her by Father Albert H.
Dolan (SAI/DOL).

St. Therese is chosen by many as their patron saint when preparing for confirmation. This book contains firsthand accounts of her life. Childhood friend and her teachers provide a glimpse of how spiritual and charitable St. Therese was. This is a very dense book, so pick and choose parts most interesting to you.

What You Should Know About Angels by Charlene Altemose (ANG/ALT)

Are angels real? Do you say the Guardian Angel Prayer daily? This little book of 79 pages explains the historic basis for beliefs in angels. So continue to teach the prayer to children as young as three years old.
They learn it quickly and never will forget it.

C.S. Lewis, The Man Who Created Narnia by Michael Coren (LEW/COR), is a short book and has many photos of him and his family.
This not only is a good biography but focuses on how he wrote the seven books about Narnia.

Borrowing a book is easy. Just write your name on the white index card found on the front inside binder of the book and place the index card in the plastic container on the table. When you return the book, just leave it on the table in the library.

Topical new books are purchased throughout the year for both adults and children. Take a few minutes and browse the shelves. It's a great way to feed your soul, deepen your faith and learn more about our Church.
