Thank you from St. Vincent de Paul!

St. Colman of Cloyne Vincentians thank you for your 2019 prayers and monetary support! Your generous contributions allowed the group to help many less fortunate in our area who had trouble paying for food, gas, utilities, prescriptions and other necessities of life. In addition, during the recent holiday season, the group, with the help of Marsha Arnold and her family, owners of the local Werner's Restaurant and our Knights of Columbus were able to donate turkey meals and Kroger vouchers to 30 chosen clients who had been helped throughout last year. Those 30 people played host to their families and in total 172 people were fed a holiday meal!

Throughout the Church, on any month with five Sundays, Vincentians stand at church doors on that last Sunday to "beg for the poor". The need is great and we will continue to be there "begging" in 2020. Thank you in advance for helping us help others in the new year.

St. Colman Vincentians regularly meet the first Tuesday of each month in our Parish Hall conference room. All are welcome at any meeting to learn more about what the group does. Please call the SVdP phone at 740-606-7801 for more information.

From the Pastor's Desk...

Happy and Holy New Year to everyone!
Recently the Bishop contacted me and indicated he would like to say a Mass at St. Colman sometime so that he can get to know the parish a bit and be able to pray and worship with you all. Earlier this week he contacted us and said that Saturday, January 11 at the 5:00 p.m. Mass would work well for him. So next weekend, if you would like to pray with and maybe say hello to the Bishop, plan on attending the 5:00 Saturday evening Mass. We will have a reception in the Parish Hall afterwards. Even if you are not attending the Saturday Mass, please come and meet the Bishop at the reception.

In Christ,
Fr. Hahn
