The Private Masses this week are not open to all simply because of the seating limitations we have in the church. They are by invitation only to the families participating in those Masses.

The Catholic Bishops have granted the dispensation of the weekly obligation to attend weekend Mass until September 13. You are not required to attend Mass even though we have resumed weekly and daily Masses in the church.

If you choose to attend Mass, face masks are required as well as a ticket for the Mass for which you want to attend. Tickets may be obtained via the link on the St. Colman website or by calling the Parish Office before Thursday.

Watch the St. Colman Mass on our YouTube channel: "St. Colman of Cloyne Streaming". You can also access it from the website. Just click the link where it says to view Mass "click here".

From the Pastor's Desk...

I wanted to use the column this weekend to thank Stephanie Robinson as she leaves from her position as the director of our religious education program.

For years, Stephanie has given so much to educating and training in the Faith of our young and old alike. Many have told me how much they've enjoyed and learned from the Bible Studies and Adult Studies she's conducted.

Our kids have benefited so much from her organization, leadership, and teaching of our PSR program for the kids and the youth programs for our teens. She's regularly travelled to Indianapolis for NCYC and to Washington D.C. for the March for Life in order to give our kids an experience of the wider Church and the experience of being a part of these great events.

She has tirelessly shared her Faith and her life with young and old alike. I think of how many of our Catholics in the pews learned much of the Faith from her through the RCIA program she has conducted through these years – not only imparting knowledge but helping form and immerse them in the community.

She will be greatly missed, and as we thank her and rejoice in what has been accomplished over the years, we ask God's blessing for her in her future endeavors.

In Christ,
Fr. Hahn
