A Drive-By Welcome for Fr. Haddad

COVID-19 & social distancing will not dampen our enthusiasm for this parish milestone as Fr. Cyrus Haddad begins his tenure as pastor here at St. Colman on July 14.

Our church family is known for its heart. So let's show Father Haddad a BIG St. Colman welcome - 2020 style.

The plan is to hide in our cars in the lower parking lot behind the parish center (beside the Conference Room) at 2:30pm on Saturday, July 18 and then drive past the rectory with signs, balloons, etc.

Call Pat Woodard 856-381-6991 with all your creative ideas and so we can get a car count.

From the Pastor's Desk...

I wanted to just write a brief column of thanks to you all for the past five years. You were given a challenging situation of no resident pastor, and a revolving door of priests involved at St. Colman but you made the best of it. As I mentioned in my final homily you always made every one of us priests feel welcome and brought us great encouragement. We each have many fond memories of our times at St. Colman.

St. Colman is a parish of strong community-minded people and a parish of great beauty in the liturgy and in the whole spread of the parish and campus. I look forward to seeing it flourish with the shepherding care of Fr. Haddad in the years to come.

One of the good things of being Vocation Director is unlike a pastor, tied to a certain parish, I will be out at different parishes on the weekends celebrating the Masses and preaching on vocations. So I know I will be back from time to time and get to see you all again.

So until we see each other again I remain...

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Hahn

PS: Please continue your regular praying for vocations! You've recently given a son of the parish to the Church, in Fr. Brett Garland, and I know there are a number of more there that God may very well be calling.

Farewell and Best Wishes, Fr. Hahn, Fr. Beal and Fr. Tim!

On July 14, St. Colman Parish will no longer be part of the Chillicothe consortium of churches. Fr. Cyrus Haddad will assume the position of Pastor of St. Colman of Cloyne. Therefore, we say "farewell" to Fr. Hahn, Fr. Beal and Fr. Tim who will no longer be serving our community.

Fr. Hahn, thank you for your spiritual guidance and leadership the past five years. We wish you the very best as you begin your next chapter and serve our diocese as the vocations director at the Pontifical Josephinum. May God continue to guide you as you mentor and form our future priests.

Fr. Beal and Fr. Tim, thank you for serving the St. Colman community this past year. We wish you the very best, Fr. Beal, as you continue to serve the Chillicothe consortium and, Fr. Tim, as you leave to serve the community at St. Joseph's Cathedral.

Virtual Fayette County Fair Booth

As reported, we will not be operating the food booth at the fair this year due to the COVID restrictions in place. This was a difficult decision because the fair booth is THE main fundraising project for our parish.

The giving envelope in the July packet was already in place before this decision was made.

So we decided to hold a Virtual Food Booth (everything is "virtual" these days, aren't they?) and continue to raise money with the fair booth. Typically the proceeds from the booth go to support our local charities such as LIFE Pregnancy Center and St. Vincent de Paul. It also helps to offset costs to parishioners who attend Oktoberfest and the St. Patrick's Day celebration.

You are welcome to still make a donation to the "Food Booth" and that money will continue to be placed in the same account to give to our charities and offset costs when we are able to celebrate together again.

This account is also active in the Online Giving Portal if you prefer to donate that way.

Face Masks Are In

Face masks can be picked up in the Parish Office before Mass this weekend (July 11-12) or Monday mornings from 9-1.

There are extra masks to be purchased if you didn't order any on the front end. Cost is $13/mask. Pay through the online giving portal, make checks payable to St. Colman Catholic Church or cash with exact change.

Sacrificial Giving July 2020

Our new fiscal year began July 1. The finance committee will meet later this month after Fr. Haddad arrives to finalize the 2020-21 budget.
