The Catholic Bishops have granted the dispensation of the weekly obligation to attend weekend Mass indefinitely. Those who are feeling well and who are not in the high risk categories are encouraged to come to Mass. Those in the high risk categories, or who are not feeling well, are encouraged to remain home.

If you choose to attend Mass, face masks are required as well as a ticket for the weekend Mass that you want to attend (including the new Sunday Mass at 11am.). Tickets may be obtained via the link on the St. Colman website or by calling the Parish Office before Thursday. Daily Masses do not require a ticket to attend.

Watch the St. Colman Mass on our YouTube channel: "St. Colman of Cloyne Streaming". You can also access it from the website. Just click the link where it says to view Mass "click here".

St. Colman is Participating in a Diocese-wide Survey Please Participate

As we announced last week, we are participating in a diocesan-wide survey about discipleship conducted by the Catholic Leadership Institute! We need your help!

Please help us by participating in a 10-15 minute survey. The survey can be completed online at <https://portal.catholicleaders.org/dmi/survey/kkd8g22dpg>. This link can be found on our website at www.stcolmanwch.org. You may also complete the paper form from the bulletin last week. Additional copies are available in the Parish Hall, or you can email Tina in the Parish Office to have one mailed to you.

The survey link is live now and will be until March 21. (Please try again if you tried it earlier in the week and it crashed on you. They were not prepared for the amount of people who hit the website. Those bugs have been fixed.) The survey will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish's efforts to help you grow. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as whole.

We are trying to get the highest response rate possible. This information will be invaluable to Fr. Haddad and our various ministries as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be. We will receive the results this spring/summer at which time we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

Online surveys will be submitted directly to the Catholic Leadership Institute. Paper surveys should be returned to the Parish Office no later than March 21. Feel free to put your completed survey in an envelope marked "Parish Survey" and drop it in the collection basket at Mass. Or if you prefer, you can mail it directly to:

Catholic Leadership Institute
301 Lindenwood Drive, Suite 310
Malvern, PA 19355

Thank you for helping with this important project!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. C. M. Haddad

From the Pastor's Desk...

F Lent is a time to repent from our bad habits and desires and turn to God, whom we should love above all things. While the Sacrament of Confession is available year round and we ought to make use of it, year round, we might make a specific effort to go to Confession during the season of Lent. Here are some helpful tips for going to Confession, adapted from Fr. Arthur Tonne's book Talks on the Sacramentals. (FYI. Yes, the Sacrament of Confession is a Sacrament, but some of the customs and practices surrounding the Sacrament are sacramentals.)

1. As you enter church, you genuflect to our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. You kneel before the same Jesus who forgave sins Himself and who gave the power of forgiving sins to the leaders of His Church. Give Him a thought.

2. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you make a good confession. When Jesus gave the power of forgiving sins, He said: "Receive the Holy Spirit; whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them; and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained." St. John, 20:23.

The priest needs the help of the Holy Spirit to guide you and absolve you; you need the help of the Holy Spirit to make a good confession. It is enough to say: "Holy Spirit, help me make a good confession."

3. You may examine your conscience or think of your sins in several ways:

- a. Think of all Ten Commandments of God and the Church Laws.
- b. Think back to your last good confession and your serious sins will stand out.
- c. Examine yourself on those commandments which you generally violate. You must confess all mortal sins, their number and their kind. You are advised to confess also your venial sins.

4. Next comes the most important part of your confession, namely, contrition or sorrow for sin. Kneeling before Jesus who died for your sins, you should be able to excite true sorrow for your disobedience.

5. It is also necessary to tell God that you will try to avoid that sin or those sins in the future. This firm purpose of amendment is another essential.

6. While preparing and waiting for confession, stay at a distance to avoid hearing anything from the confessional. Should you hear anything, you are bound to absolute secrecy.

7. In the confessional, kneel down (if you are able to do so comfortably). That is a ceremony of humility. You are kneeling before God's representative. As you enter the priest says: "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

Making the sign of the cross, remember that through the death of Christ on the cross your sins are forgiven.

8. Begin your confession with some simple, clear sentence like this:

"Bless me, Father, for I have sinned..." Or, "I confess to Almighty God, and to you, father, that I have sinned..." After this, give your state in life and how long it has been since your last Confession. I.e. "I am a single man, and it has been two weeks since my last confession", or "I am a married woman with several children, and it has been three months since...", or "I am a widower, and it has been forty years since..." Then mention your sins.

9. It is not necessary to say that you received absolution, said your penance, and received Holy Communion. If you did not receive absolution, or did not say your penance, mention that and tell the priest why. If you did not receive Holy Communion, mention the reason.

10. Tell your sins simply, clearly, briefly. You must tell all your mortal sins--the kind of mortal sins and the number of times, at least about how often. You are advised to confess also your venial sins. When you are finished, let the priest know by saying something like this: "For these and all my sins I am heartily sorry."

In general, don't drag out your confession with useless details. On the other hand, there is no need for rushing or hurrying. If you want advice, ask for it. If you want or need help, ask for it.

11. Listen attentively to the advice of the priest, and answer simply and clearly any questions he may ask. He is guided by the Holy Spirit.

[After the priest has given some advice or encouragement, he will give you a penance, and then ask you to make your act of contrition.]

12. During the prayer of absolution, he makes the sign of the cross over you as he says the words:

"I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen."

13. On leaving the confessional say your penance immediately. Any time before your next confession is permitted, but say your penance at once, lest you forget it.

14. Again direct your gaze and your heart to our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and thank Him for this great gift of grace and mercy.

Act of Contrition: O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven, and the pains of hell; but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, Who are all good and deserving of all my love.

I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life.

Amen.

Confession Times

Tuesdays: 5:00– 5:20pm

Saturdays: 9:30am until all are heard and 4:00—4:30pm

In order to maintain 6ft of distance during Covid, confessions are heard in the Cry Room. Please line up along the confessional in the church. Walk through the servers' sacristy to the Cry Room. After your confession, exit through the ramp door. Please do not use the back door of the church right beside the Cry Room to enter or exit. The next person in line must see you exit so s/he knows it is his/her turn.

St. Colman will be participating in the 40 Days of Adoration for the Real Presence Real Future campaign
Saturday, March 6th
9:00am until 9:00pm

Please, come in and pray before Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament during that time for the good of our parish, the good of the diocese of Columbus, and the spread of the faith, both in Fayette County as well as the Diocese of Columbus. Please, sign up. We need to have a minimum of two people signed up for each hour. The sign-up sheet is in the back of the church.

Additionally, there are some special things happening throughout during the day.

- 8:30am Mass in the extraordinary form
- 9:00am Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament
First Saturday Devotions
- 9:30am Confessions as usual
- 12:00pm Rosary
- 3:00pm Holy Hour of Reparation
- 4:00pm Confessions as usual
- 5:00pm Mass as usual
- 6:00pm Presentation on Eucharistic Devotion by Fr. Stash Dailey
Confessions immediately following the presentation
(offered for ½ hour, or until all are heard)
- 8:52pm Benediction and Reposition of the Blessed Sacrament

Fr. Daily is an accomplished and engaging speaker, a personal friend, and one of the holiest men I know. All who attend His presentation will certainly be edified by it.

Message from the Bishop...

Stick around for a few minutes after Mass this coming Saturday and Sunday. Bishop Brennan has asked the priests of the diocese to show a short video presentation after each of the Masses.

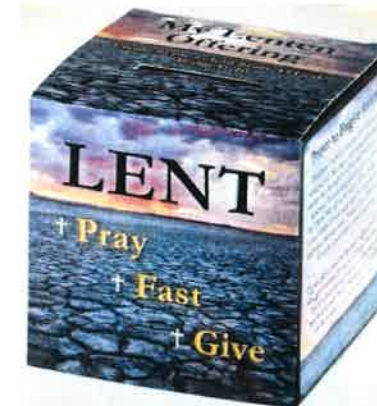

Change in Catholic Times Renewal Process

It's not too late to sign up for The Catholic Times. For a minimum donation of $17 for a one-year subscription, Catholic news from the diocese will be delivered right to your mailbox.

NEW THIS YEAR: Sign up online at columbuscatholic.org/catholictimes under the subscription payments tab. You may also use the envelope provided in your February packet, or simply write your name and "The Catholic Times" on a plain envelope, make your check payable to the Diocese of Columbus – Catholic Times, and drop it into the collection basket. Another option is to mail your $17 check, payable to Diocese of Columbus – Catholic Times, to 197 E. Gay St., Columbus, OH 43215. Your support and your readership are greatly appreciated. You need The Catholic Times to keep up on all of the news throughout the diocese and the Catholic world.

Offering Box

Again this year, instead of the CRS Rice Bowl Project, we are doing our own Offering Box program. 50% will go to our St. Vincent DePaul Society to help those in need in our area. 50% will go to a special project at the orphanage we help support in Uganda: Miryante Orphanage. Be sure to take an offering box home with you today, fill it up throughout Lent with your gifts of alms, and then bring it back on Holy Thursday or Easter. As the boxes are smaller than the Rice Bowls, you might consider placing a bag near it at home to collect further, or take home a second box. Extra boxes can be found in the back of church.

Stations of the Cross

Father Haddad will lead the Stations of the Cross at 6:00pm and at 7:00pm this coming Friday, February 26.

If there are enough people who attend the 7pm session, Father may continue to have it both times.

Note: The Knights of Columbus will not be holding their Lenten Fish Frys this year due to the COVID pandemic.
